Course Description: Welcome to Criminal Law I. During this course you will be introduced to the study of law from its origins in our Constitution to present day criminal procedure. This course will prepare you for future study of the law and criminal justice administration, as well as increase your overall understanding of our legal system.

Course Objective: Upon completion of this course you will have been exposed to the American governmental and legal systems as they relate to various areas of criminal and civil law. Specific lesson objectives will be provided for each class meeting.

Instructor's Biography: Mr. Jones received his Bachelor of Science Degree in Government from the United States Coast Guard Academy and his Masters in Public Administration from Chaminade University. Mr. Jones serves on active duty in the United States Coast Guard and holds the rank of Lieutenant Commander. He is presently serving in the Law Enforcement Branch of the Fourteenth Coast Guard District III Honolulu, Hawaii and is a member of the part time instructor staff at Chaminade University. During his eighteen years of service, Mr. Jones' Coast Guard duties have included enforcement of federal and international maritime laws in the areas of drug smuggling, illegal immigration, and living marine resource protection.

Text: Walston-Dunham, Introduction to Law, (3rd edition, 1999)
