This 400 level course assumes that the student is familiar with the American justice system at all levels and of the various law enforcement agencies. CJ 151 or CJ 201 is a recommended requirement.

ATTENDANCE & PARTICIPATION: Class participation is an expected and essential requirement of the course. A student's participation in each session is considered important to the learning process. Missing a session is not an excuse for not being prepared for the next session. A student's absence from or late arrivals to a session will impact the student's grade. In general, there is no make-up procedure for missed examinations or assignments. Students who have advanced knowledge that they will miss an session or deadline should contact the instructor to make arrangements to take the examination at another time. The decision to allow a make-up assignment under these circumstances rests with the instructor and will be made on a case-by-case basis. If a student did not have advanced notice that s/he would miss a session or assignment deadline, s/he must contact the instructor within 24 hours. A message may be left by the student on voice mail at any time. READING ASSIGNMENTS: All reading assignments must be completed prior to class or the student will not be prepared to participate meaningfully in class discussions. Classes are prepared on the assumption and expectation that the student has read the assigned materials and completed any required assignments. It is particularly important that assigned cases are read for presentation in the upcoming class.

COURSE EVALUATIONS: Final grades are based on the following factors:

FIRST MID-TERM EXAM..... 100 Points
SECOND MID-TERM EXAM .....100 Points
FINAL EXAM..... 100 Points

Exams are given after four chapters are completed.

GRADING: A = 90% of the possible 300 total points (270+)
B = 80% of the possible 300 total points (240+)
C = 70% of the possible 300 total points. (210+)
