Instructors Background

Louis:

Receiving his undergraduate degree from Wayland Baptist University, Louis continued his Graduate degree at Chaminade University receiving his master's of Science in Criminal Justice Administration. Louis is currently a Training Lieutenant for the Honolulu Police Department, where he has been an officer in various sectors for the past 16 years. His occupational directives and training requires direct interaction and understanding of criminal Procedures with specific emphasis in Search and Seizure.

Kathy:

Receiving my undergraduate degree from Chaminade University in Political Science and Criminal Justice, I continued in the graduate program and received my Master's of Science in Criminal Justice Administration. During this time, I also received my Juris Doctorate from the William S. Richardson School of Law. In reference to my Corrections background, I currently am a Deputy Prosecuting Attorney for the State and work daily with various aspects of Criminal Procedures with special emphasis in Judicial application.

Course Objective:

The emphasis will be to develop an understanding of Criminal Procedures within the Hawaii and Mainland CJ Systems In terms of process and function, and the role it plays within the criminal Justice System. We will be discussing the interaction between various Criminal Justice agencies such as: the police, court systems, and various law enforcement agencies. There will be an analysis section of our studies which will focus on the specific Legal and Constitutional aspects of Criminal Procedures. As a special emphasis we will provide in-depth discussions and scenarios regarding Search and Seizures.
