Course Description:

Integration of major managerial approached with each segment of the criminal justice system. Includes planning, budgeting, staffing, labor relations and operations.

Course Objectives:

At the end of this course it is expected that the student:

1. Will understand the influences of government on public administration.
2. Will be familiar with terminology used in management.
3. Will understand the role of public managers in government.

Textbooks:

Gordon & Milakovich (1995), Public Administration In America (6th ed.). St. Martin's Press.

Attendance:

Attendance is an expected and necessary requirement of this course. It is recognized that there are times when the student will not be able to attend class but absence from class will impact upon the student's grade. This class is conducted as a seminar class and participation in each class session is considered important to the learning process. Missing a class is not an excuse for not being prepared for the next class, completing reading assignments or other projects, which were assigned during the missed class. Certain presentation and assignment are such a nature that it may be impossible to make them up if missed due to an absence. If this is the case, the student will not receive credit for the work.

Reading Assignments:

It is absolutely necessary that the reading assignments be completed prior to class or the student will not be prepared to participate meaningfully in discussions.
