OFFICE HOURS: By appointment

TEXTBOOK: Verderber, Rudolph F., Verderber, Kathleen S. (2001),
Communicate!, Wadsworth Publishing.(10th ed.)

COURSE DESCRIPTION: The course is developed to introduce you to major forms of oral communication. Through class activities you will learn effective speaking skills for two-person, small groups, and public situations. You will experience class discussions, public speaking presentations and examination to explore and apply basic principles of message development.

COURSE OBJECTIVES: At the end of the course the students should be able to:

- Overcome their fear of public speaking.
- Understand the communication process and the importance of verbal and nonverbal communication.
- Identify, discuss, and apply major intrapersonal and interpersonal communication concepts and principles.
- Introduce students to effective group discussion techniques.
- Become an effective listener and learn effective public speaking skills.

COURSE FORMAT/REQUIREMENTS: This course is a combination of an interactive, cooperative experience between the students and the instructor. The format is designed to integrate lectures, small group work, discussions, and student presentations. Student active participation is encouraged. Chapter readings of the textbook and homework will be assigned in advance. It is important that all students read the assigned chapters prior to class and come well prepared to participate in the discussion of the material. Students are required to attend class regularly and promptly. Being in class means that you arrived on time and stayed until class is over. More than one unexcused absence will hurt your performance in this class and is automatic –2 points from the total point system. If you are not present in class, you are still responsible for the material covered. Homework must be completed on the specified due date. Late homework will be penalized one letter grade per week. You may make up a test or a speech with verification that circumstances were beyond your control. Please notify me before class if you know in advance that you will not be attending.
