- Textbook: Juvenile Delinquency, The Core, Larry Siegel and Brandon Welsh, Fifth Edition
- Objective: Components of the juvenile justice system and the processing of the juvenile through the system; rights of the juvenile; criminological theories relevant to juvenile delinquency and criminal behaviors. This course provides competencies to meet the program outcome to allow students to demonstrate an understanding of learning the basic rights guaranteed to each individual by both state and federal constitutions and law (course catalog).
- Grading: Grades will be based on the following:
- | | |
|-------------------------------------|--------------|
| Attendance (10%) | A = 90 - 100 |
| Class Participation (10%) | B = 89 - 80 |
| Assignments (20%) | C = 79 - 70 |
| Research Paper & Presentation (30%) | D = 69 - 60 |
| Exams/Quizzes (30%) | F = 59 - 50 |
- Attendance: Attendance is mandatory, essential, and will fall within school guidelines -- meaning it will and can affect your final grade. Two or more absences will likely result in a request to withdraw from the class. If for any reason you miss class, it is your responsibility to notify the instructor before class and make arrangements to hand in any assignments that were due and inquire about assignments that will be due.
- ADA Accommodations: Any accommodations requested under the American Disability Act must be conducted through the Counseling Center.
- Class Participation: Each student is required to participate during discussions and be respectful of the opinions that others may have.
- Assignments: Application is key to comprehension. Be prepared. The purpose of assignments is to demonstrate knowledge, understanding, and writing skills; they are intended to be thought-provoking. Assignment format: typed, 12 point font, one inch margins, and be double spaced; name and date of when the assignment was due in the upper left hand corner along and staple all pages. Assignments are to be turned in at the end of class. Late assignments are accepted on a case-by-case basis and must be discussed with the instructor prior to the due date.

Articles: Each week, you will submit one article that contains the summary of the article and your reaction/response to it. The articles must relate to the topic of the week, demonstrate the class objective, and must be within the past five years. The source of your article must be provided and its degree of reliability will be evaluated. Refer to assignments for further formatting.

Research Paper: The topic of your paper will reflect the topics of the class and must be approved by the instructor prior to the start of your research. The format of your paper must be APA. The minimum amount of pages is five. You must use a minimum of three scholarly resources. You will be graded on knowledge of the topic, writing skills, analysis, resources used, presentation, and the ability to abide by the stated structure.

Any paper that is plagiarized will result in an automatic failure for the class. Late papers will be accepted on a case by case basis and must be discussed with the instructor prior to the due date.
