Instructor Contact Information

Office Phone: As an adjunct instructor, I don't have a physical office at CUH; however, I can be reached at 808-230-4691 \(cell\) (Please leave a message if I do not answer your call right away. I will call you back.) I am available from 5 p.m.-9 p.m. Hawaii Standard Time (HST) on most days, but I attempt to reserve Sunday for my family. If these times are not convenient for you, please let me know. I will be happy to accommodate your schedule, if possible. I provide you with these times to make it easier to communicate with me, and not to limit our contact. I want you to know that, should you need to contact me outside these periods, you should not hesitate to do so. If or when you call my phone, please leave a message; however, I check our classroom almost every day. I can also receive text messages. Please start your text message with your name and class name or number.

E-mail Address: Please use my CUH e-mail, jeffrey.ahn@adjunct.chaminade.edu (Please check my e-mail address spelling. Some students claimed they sent their assignments to my CUH e-mail address, but I found out later they misspelled my e-mail address, especially my first name). I check my e-mail at CUH every day during the course.

Course Information

Course Description:

Examination of terrorist organizations, activities, threats posed to a free society, guerrillas, national and international organizations. Focus is upon application of knowledge to policy choices and implications for justice system agencies.

PROGRAM LINKING STATEMENT:

The events that have followed since September 11, 2001 have changed the world. However, terrorism has been around much longer than that and this course will examine the history and definitions of terrorism from a global perspective to allow the student to get a very broad view of this major topic.

TERRORISM AND JUSTICE

Fall 2015

Syllabus

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

Terrorism has become a household term played upon by media and political figures. But what exactly is terrorism? How long has it existed? What is America doing to combat terrorism, and are the tactics working? This course seeks to theoretically and analytically examine the concept of terrorism presently and historically. We will begin the course with some of the definitional problems, as well as some of the general tactics and concepts of terrorism. We will then turn the discussion to issues of domestic terrorism, religious terrorism, and suicide terrorism. This course concludes with some of the major implications of the "war on terror," the Uniting and Strengthening America by Providing Appropriate Tools Required to Intercept and Obstruct Terrorism (USA PATRIOT) Act, and immigration. It is my hope that students will leave this course with not only a better understanding of terrorism, but also have the ability to critically evaluate the mainstream messages served to the American public. Focus is upon application of knowledge to policy choices and implications for justice system agencies.

Textbooks, Supplementary Materials, Hardware and Software Requirements

Required Textbook:

- White, J. (2012). Terrorism and homeland security (8th Ed.). Belmont, CA: Wadsworth Cengage Learning (ISBN: 978-1-285-06196-2).

Highly recommended materials:

1. APA Format - APA format is required for all written assignments. Please refer to the APA Publications Manual, 6th Edition (6th printing, ISBN: 1433805618). I only use this manual when I grade students' assignments.
2. Grammar Manual - The Gregg Reference Manual, Tribute Edition, is the standard writing manual for this course (ISBN: 007339710).
3. Dictionary – Merriam-Webster dictionaries are identified as the standard spelling references for APA formatted academic products. Your assignments should not have any spelling errors. Review and check your works using the aforementioned dictionaries or www.m-w.com; and do not trust a dictionary in Microsoft Word ® or other applications alone.

Supplementary Materials: None.

Course Web site address: Not Applicable.

Hardware Requirements: Your CUH e-mail account is accessible from most PCs and Macintosh computers with a reliable internet connection. You are required to use your CUH student e-mail account during this course.

Software Requirements: You are required to submit writing assignments following the American Psychology Association (APA) format using various applications, such as Microsoft Word®; and present your research using presentation software, such as Microsoft PowerPoint®. You are not required to purchase these programs and use other applications; however, I will not grade your work if I cannot open or view them. I am using both Microsoft Office Mac Suite ® and Sun Microsystems OpenOffice.org. When or if you use OpenOffice, please save your assignments using “.doc” file extension for documents and “.ppt” for presentation, respectively. Please ensure you can access to an Adobe reader as well. You will need the Adobe reader to review my feedback and other materials.

Assessment and Grading

Grading Procedure: Letter grades are given as your final grade for this course. Grades are calculated from the student’s attendance, class participation, weekly article reviews, presentations, case study, and research papers. The grades are interpreted as follows:

- A - Outstanding scholarship and an unusual degree of intellectual initiative.
- B - Superior work done in a consistent and intellectual manner.
- C - Average grade indicating a competent grasp of subject matter.
- F - Failure to grasp the minimum subject matter; no credit given.
- W - Withdrawal before published deadline (see your counselor or academic calendar for details).
- I* - Did not complete a small portion of the work or final examination due to circumstances beyond the student’s control. This grade will not be given except under circumstances of extreme hardship (see CUH Student Handbook for details). This grade is given only in situations where unexpected emergencies prevent a student from completing the course and the remaining work can be completed the next semester. Your instructor is the final authority on whether you qualify for this grade. Incomplete work must be finished by the end of the subsequent semester or this grade will automatically be recorded as an “F” on your transcript. Please do not ask for this grade on the last of the course.

Grading Scale:

Score	Grade
91-100% of possible total points	A
81-90% of possible total points	B
71-80% of possible total points	C
51-60% of possible total points	F

Assignments and Participation Requirements

- Weekly Attendance and Participation (20 points each, Week 1 through Week 10): In-class discussion and peer feedback are important parts of this course; therefore, attendance is very important. The goal is to provide a supportive, open environment where you can test and sharpen your analytical and research skills. Evaluation of student participation will be based on the following criteria:

- ❖ Demonstrate knowledge for course materials and effectively apply relevant theories and concepts.
- ❖ Integrate and build upon the ideas of other class members
- ❖ Late for class and leave early: 5-point deduction per hour
- ❖ Absence: 20 points deduction

- Weekly Writing Assignments (20 points each, Week 2 through Week 9): This is a writing and research intensive course; and each student is expected to submit a weekly writing assignment via your CUH e-mail. This paper will be completed in accordance with the APA Manual. You are required to submit this assignment no later than Wednesdays prior to meeting on Fridays. Late submission will not be allowed.
- Nine (9) quizzes (20 points each): These quizzes are not cumulative and will include only materials covered weekly in the specified chapters, except for Week 10. Topics for these quizzes are posted in this syllabus. Items on the exam will come from your textbook. Quizzes may be fill-in blanks and/or essay format. It will be administered near the end of course meeting (in other words, Week 1 quiz will be administered near the end time of Week 1 meeting).
- Final Exam: These exams are cumulative and will include only materials covered in this course. Items on the exam may come from the text, supplemental reading materials, classroom lectures and discussions, or other means used throughout the course. Exams may consist of questions in multiple choice, short answer, and essay formats.

NOTE: Missed quizzes/final examination cannot be made up unless the absence is for a documented emergency, documented medical reasons, documented mandatory service to the University, documented mandatory military obligations, or other acceptable reason as deemed by the instructor. The instructor must approve any make-up examination. Delay in contacting the instructor after a missed quiz/examination is reason to deny a make-up. Answers for the quizzes are from your textbook, even you may disagree with your view or experiences.

- One (1) Research Presentation (100 points): Select a terrorist group (foreign or domestic) and write a report explaining why you believe your selected terrorist group will be more dangerous to us (United States) than other terrorist groups and focused upon application of knowledge to policy choices and implications for justice system agencies to combat your selected terrorist group:
- Requirement for the presentation:
 - Cover slide (name, title)
 - Agenda
- Body (depends on your topic, it can be between 10-15 slides, but they can be longer). Note section of each slide requires narration or scripts as I am reading your slide and present it to the leadership in your absence (150 words minimum).
 - Conclusion

- References (of course academic resources) following the APA standard
- Professional appearance of slides and contents are a must (This brief is so important, because you might be terminated or promoted after this brief)
- Late submission will not be allowed.

NOTE: Your research presentation must be submitted no later than September 3, 2014.

Feedback: Each week, scores, or comments on assignment and quiz by within 6 days of when they were submitted will be delivered to you via CUH e-mail. Please check your CUH e-mail as frequent as possible. You must have a version of Adobe Reader to review my comments on your assignments. Please review my comments to avoid repeating same errors for better results.

Course Ground Rules

ACADEMIC HONESTY: Students are responsible for promoting academic honesty at this university by not participating in or facilitating others' participation in any act of academic dishonesty, and by reporting incidences of academic dishonesty (such as theft of tests, records, and other confidential materials, altering grades, and/or plagiarism) to their instructors. Questions of academic dishonesty are reviewed first by the instructor, followed by the Director, who supervises the faculty teaching the courses.

PLAGIARISM: Chaminade University policies regarding academic honesty are explicit. The standards as clearly stated in the Academic Catalog will be strictly enforced. There is no excuse for using anthers work and turning it in as your own, and absolutely no value in irreparably damaging your reputation and your class grade.

LATE ASSIGNMENTS: Assignments must be e-mailed to your instructor's CUH e-mail by Fridays before you come to the class. Otherwise loss of all credit will occur. Any late submission will not be accepted unless you provide me with supporting documents for my review and approval. Early submission is highly encouraged.

PUNCTUALITY/CONSISTENCY: A key to succeed in any learning environment is to keep up with your required tasks and submit your work in a timely manner.

REWRITE POLICY: I am not accepting any rewrite request.

WRITING POLICY: Spelling errors and passive voice are two of my major writing pet peeves. You are required to follow the APA standards during the course. All writing assignments should demonstrate mastery of grammar, punctuation, spelling, and syntax expected of master degree level students. If you need writing assistance, please seek help from Student Support Services and the Academic Achievement Program. All papers are to be word-processed, proofread, and solely the work of the author.

Guidelines for Communications (observe course netiquette at all times)

E-mail:

- Use the Chaminade e-mail account provided.
- Always include a subject line.
- Remember without facial expressions some comments may be taken the wrong way. Be careful in wording your e-mails. Use of emoticons might be helpful in some cases.
- Use standard fonts.
- Special formatting such as centering, audio messages, tables, html, etc. should be avoided unless necessary to complete an assignment or other communication.

Discussion Posting (not applicable to this course; however, you should review and use them in your activities):

- Review the discussion threads thoroughly before entering the discussion.
- Try to maintain threads by using the "Reply" button rather starting a new topic.
- Do not make insulting or inflammatory statements to other members of the discussion group. Be respectful of other's ideas.
- Be patient and read the comments of others thoroughly before entering your remarks.
- Be cooperative with group leaders in completing assigned tasks.
- Be positive and constructive in group discussions.
- Respond in a thoughtful and timely manner.

HINTS FOR TAKING ONLINE COURSE

- Visit your classroom in eCollege as frequently as possible to see if there is anything new or last minute changes.
- Avoid turning in weekly required works last minute.
- Using Outlook® or an appointment reminder from your mobile phone or PC/Mac, if you have, to track your activities.
- Visit your gradebook in eCollege so that you know where you are and what you need to do to improve or maintain your grade.
- Check your work before you submit them. You will save many points from avoidable mistakes, particularly APA format
- Ask me questions before, not after.

MARIANIST EDUCATIONAL VALUES

The five characteristics of a Marianist Education are:

1. Educate for Formation in Faith - Catholic Universities affirm an intricate relationship between reason and faith. As important as discursive and logical formulations and critical thinking are, they are not able to capture all that can be and ought to be learned. Intellectual rigor coupled with respectful humility provides a more profound preparation for both career and life. Intellectual rigor characterizes the pursuit of all that can be learned. Respectful humility reminds people of faith that they need to learn from those who are of other faiths and cultures, as well as from those who may have no religious faith at all.

2. Provide an Excellent Education - In the Marianist approach to education, "excellence" includes the whole person, not just the technician or rhetorician. Marianist universities educate whole persons, developing their physical, psychological, intellectual, moral, spiritual and social qualities. Faculty and students attend to fundamental moral attitudes, develop their personal talents and acquire skills that will help them learn all their lives. The Marianist approach to education links theory and practice, liberal and professional education. Our age has been deeply shaped by science and technology. Most recently, information and educational technologies have changed the way faculty and students research and teach. At Marianist Universities, two goals are pursued simultaneously: an appropriate use of information technology for learning, and the enhancement of interaction between students and teachers. As Catholic, Marianist Universities seek to embrace diverse peoples and understand diverse cultures, convinced that ultimately, when such people come together, one of the highest purposes of education is realized: a human community that respects every individual within it.

3. Educate in Family Spirit - Known for their strong sense of community, Marianists have traditionally spoken of this sense as "family spirit." Marianist educational experience fosters the development of a community characterized by a sense of family spirit that accepts each person with loving respect, and draws everyone in the university into the challenge of community building. Family spirit also enables Marianist universities to challenge their students, faculty and staff to excellence and maturity, because the acceptance and love of a community gives its members the courage to risk failure and the joy of sharing success.

4. Educate for Service, Justice, and Peace - The Marianist approach to higher education is deeply committed to the common good. The intellectual life itself is undertaken as a form of service in the interest of justice and peace, and the university curriculum is designed to connect the classroom with the wider world. In addition, Marianist universities extend a special concern for the poor and marginalized and promote the dignity, rights and responsibilities of all people.

5. Educate for Adaptation to Change - In the midst of rapid social and technological change, Marianist universities readily adapt and change their methods and structures so that the wisdom of their educational philosophy and spirituality may be transmitted even more fully. "New times call for new methods," Father Chaminade often repeated. The Marianist university faces the future confidently, on the one hand knowing that it draws on a rich educational philosophy, and on the other fully aware for that philosophy to remain vibrant in changing times, adaptations need to be made.

Selected from Characteristics of Marianist Universities: A Resource Paper, Published in 1999 by Chaminade University of Honolulu, St. Mary's University and University of Dayton. Each of these characteristics is integrated, to varying degrees, in this course.
