

'0E'01

MUSIC ED. 214
WINTER
HENRY 227
JACKIE DUDOCK
Ph. 377 8433
E-mail dudockj001@hawaii.rr.com

COURSE OBJECTIVES

To create an understanding of the importance of music, as a supplement, in achieving all educational objectives.

To emphasize the importance of the music experience in fostering knowledge of self, and enhancing relationships.

To push through fears or embarrassment of singing in public in order to freely and joyfully lead children in appreciating and participating in singing.

Student will be graded on;

Degree of class participation

Thoughtfulness of preparation of the following:

*Presentation of a picture book with a rhyme or a book based on a song

*Presentation of an item, found in nature, which can be used to enhance music experience.

*Sharing of a song in a language other than English

*Presentation of a song of celebration, using a book, puppets instruments or props.

Schedule:

February 21: Using children's books to teach music

February 28: Music and creativity
Presentation of music using a book

March 7: Furthering music appreciation
Presentation of thing of nature to be used as instrument
Rhythm and percussion instruments

March 14: Duration, pitch, dynamics, tempo, timbre. texture, harmony,
Presentation of song of celebration.

March 21: Movement, music and the young child.