PROGRAM LEARNING OUTCOMES	Successful teacher candidates are competent in relevant professional, state, and institutional standards. They demonstrate their competence through meeting Program Learning Outcomes PLOs). The PLOs listed on the next page are emphasized through this course.
	PLO1	Knowledge of subject matter such as reading/language arts, mathematics, social sciences, science, visual arts, musical arts, and kinesthetic arts ( Content Knowledge ).
	PLO2	Knowledge of how students develop and learn, and engagement of students in developmentally appropriate experiences that support learning ( Developmentally Appropriate Practice ).
	PLO3	Knowledge of how to teach subject matter to students and the application of a variety of instructional strategies that are rigorous, differentiated, focused on the active involvement of the learner ( Pedagogical Content Knowledge ).
	PLO4	Knowledge and application of appropriate technology for student learning ( Technology ).
	PLO5	Knowledge and use of appropriate assessment strategies that enhance the knowledge of learners and their responsibility for their own learning ( Assessment ).
	PLO6	Skills for adapting learning activities for individual differences and the needs of diverse learners and for maintaining safe, positive, caring, and inclusive learning environments ( Diversity ).
	PLO7	Skills in the planning and design of meaningful learning activities that support and have a positive impact on student learning based upon knowledge of subject matter, students, the community, curriculum standards and integration of appropriate technology.
	PLO8	Professional dispositions, professionalism in teaching, and ethical standards of conduct consistent with Marianist values, and positive and constructive relationships with parents, the school community and professional colleagues ( Professional &amp; Ethical Dispositions and Communication ).
COURSE LEARNING OBJECTIVES	These objectives let you know what you should be able to do by the end of the class, as a result of your learning.
	CLO1	Integrate foundational learning theories, ways of learning, and student-centered learning strategies to create and scaffold conceptually-based unit and lesson plans. (PLO 2, 3, 6, & 7).

	CLO2	Utilize backward design principles to create a thematic unit of study that demonstrates planning skills, knowledge of different areas (“big ideas” and key concepts and skills included), the use of individual and varied group instructional processes, and connections to community (place-based education). (PLO 1, 2, 3, 5, 6, 7, & 8).
	CLO3	Demonstrate competent use of appropriate educational assessment, evaluation, technology, and research strategies for the development of an integrated thematic unit of study. (PLO 1, 2, 4, & 5).
	CLO4	Produce standards-based learning activities utilizing the backward design process that integrate at least three content areas into a place-based thematic unit of study that addresses essential questions, promotes deep levels of understanding, and reveals authentic forms of assessment. (PLO 2, 3, 6, 7, & 8).
ESSENTIAL QUESTIONS FOR THE COURSE	1. What are the purposes of an integrated approach to planning, teaching, and assessing a unit of study? 2. How can an integrated unit of study be connected to and supported by student learning outcomes in the form of standards? 3. How can backward design principles be used for the development of an integrated, place-based unit of study?

CLASSROOM PROTOCOL	Participation As stated in the Chaminade University Catalog, you are expected to attend all classes for courses in which you are registered. You must follow the attendance policy of the Division as appropriate for the course format (on-ground, hybrid, or online). Penalties for not meeting the attendance requirements may result in lowering of the grade, withdrawal from the course, or failing the course. In order to receive full points in this class, it is necessary to attend regularly, participate in

	online class discussions and turn your work in on time. That means posting on time, reading work in a timely manner, turning in assignments as required, and participating in online discussions as expected. Your engaged participation is important. If you do not log on to, or participate as required in this online course for the first two weeks, I will notify the Dean and you will be withdrawn from the course. If you stop participating in this online course without officially withdrawing you may receive a failing grade. This is an accelerated Semester Classes (10 classes). Because we have few meetings, it is the policy of the education department more than one absence lowers your final grade by one letter. You may miss up to 10% of the class without penalty. Missing more than one class due to posting late or too little depth will result your final grade being lowered by one letter. Missing more than two classes will result in failure or withdrawal. Discussion or other postings and assignments submitted more than one day late may be penalized with a reduction of 10% of total points possible for each day it is turned in late. You must notify me if illness prevents you from posting or submitting assignments on time so that we can make arrangements for you to complete missed assignments. You may notify me by sending me an email before the class session you will miss. I will use my professional judgement as to whether it is appropriate to modify deadlines of course requirements accordingly. Excused Absences Since it is expected that students will participate in all class sessions, excused absences are only granted in exceptional situations where evidence is provided by the student to the instructor. Examples would include illness (with verification by a doctor) or the death of a family member. Students should notify their instructors when a situation prevents them from attending class and make arrangements to complete missed assignments. While notification of the instructor by a student that he/she will be absent is courteous, it does not necessarily mean the absence will be excused.
UNIVERSITY AND EDUCATION DIVISION POLICIES	Using Netiquette <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>-Be polite and respectful of one another.</li> <li>-Avoid personal attacks. Keep dialogue friendly and supportive, even when you disagree or wish to present a controversial idea or response.</li> <li>-Be careful with the use of humor and sarcasm. Emotion is difficult to sense through text.</li> <li>-Be helpful and share your expertise. Foster community communication and collaboration.</li> <li>-Contribute constructively and completely to each discussion. Add value in your comments. Avoid short, repetitive "I agree" responses.</li> <li>-Consider carefully what you write. Re-read all email and discussion before sending or posting. Remember that email is considered a permanent record that may be forwarded to others.</li> <li>-Be brief and succinct. Do not use up other people's time or bandwidth.</li> </ul>

- Use descriptive subject headings in each email message.
- Respect privacy. Do not forward a personal message without permission.
- Cite references. Include web addresses, authors, names or articles, etc.
- Keep responses professional and educational. Do not advertise or send chain letters.
- Do not send large attachments unless you have been requested to do so or have permission from all parties.
- Proofread! Errors in spelling and grammar hinder communication

Education Division Incomplete Grade

At the discretion of the faculty member, a grade of "I" may be assigned to a student who has successfully completed a majority of the coursework, but who has an unavoidable and compelling reason why the remainder of the work cannot be completed on schedule. The issuance of an "I" grade is not automatic.

Prior to reporting final grades, a contract must be made between the student and the instructor for the completion of the required coursework. This contract must reflect a final default grade if the student does not submit the required assignments. (For example, the grade notation would be IB, IC, or IF. The default for an "I" that is submitted without an alternative grade is "F.")

The contract must include a detail of the remaining coursework and the final deadline date by which the grade is to be submitted. (Note: the deadline date is 90 days past the end of term date and includes the time required by the instructor to review, grade, and submit the paperwork reflecting the final grade.) This deadline date may not be extended.

Academic Honesty

Plagiarism is the offering of work of another as one's own. Plagiarism is a serious offense and may include, but is not limited to, the following:

- Complete or partial copying directly from a published or unpublished source without proper acknowledgement to the author.
- Minor changes in wording or syntax are not sufficient to avoid charges of plagiarism.
- Not giving proper acknowledgement of the source of a text.
- Paraphrasing the work of another without proper acknowledgement.
- Submitting as one's own original work (however freely given or purchased) the original exam, research paper, manuscript, report, computer file, or other assignment that has been prepared by another individual

In cases of alleged academic dishonesty (such as plagiarism, cheating, claiming work not done by the student, or lying) where a faculty member observes or discovers the dishonesty, the faculty members may choose to confront the student and handle the matter between the faculty member and the student, or the faculty member may choose to refer the incident to the Dean or Graduate Program Director. (If the Dean or the Director is the instructor in question, the concern shall be directed to the Provost; if the Provost is the instructor in question, the concern shall be directed to the President.)

If the faculty member chooses to confront the situation and it is not satisfactorily resolved between the faculty member and the student, the matter may then be referred or appealed

	to the Dean or Director. In either case, the Divisional Dean or Graduate Program Director may choose to 1) resolve the matter through a meeting with both the student and the faculty member, or 2) refer the matter to the Provost. The findings, in either case are final. If alleged academic dishonesty is reported to a faculty member by a third party, then the faculty member will meet with the Divisional Dean or Graduate Program Director; to determine whether the evidence warrants an investigation, and how the investigation will be handled. It may also be decided that the faculty member will either confront the student or, assuming enough evidence is present to warrant action, turn the matter over to the Divisional Dean to resolve or organize a hearing. If the student is found guilty of the charges of academic dishonesty, the student may be subject to academic penalties such as failure of the course, exam, or assignment. Other penalties from the list of possible disciplinary sanctions may also be deemed appropriate. Disability and Full Inclusion  Chaminade University of Honolulu is committed to a policy of non-discrimination and recognizes the obligation to provide equal access to its programs, services, and activities to students with disabilities. If you are in need of accommodation due to a documented disability, contact the Director of Personal Counseling at (808) 739-4603 or by email at the jyasuhar@chaminade.edu address. A determination will be made if you meet the requirements for documented disability in accordance with the American with Disabilities Act. It is important to contact them as soon as possible so that accommodations are implements in a timely fashion. We are committed to an integral, quality education that begins with respect for the complexity and diversity of each person. Faculty members attempt to engage the whole person with quality courses and activities that challenge the intellectual, emotional, aesthetic, physical, and ethical dimensions that make up each student’s life experience. Writing Standards  All work submitted by Chaminade University students must meet the following writing standards. Written assignments should: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>-Use the grammar, spelling, punctuation, and sentence structure of Standard Written English.</li> <li>-Develop ideas, themes, and main points coherently and concisely.</li> <li>-Adopt modes and styles appropriate to their purpose and audience.</li> <li>-Be clear, complete, and effective.</li> <li>-Carefully analyze and synthesize material and ideas borrowed from sources. The sources of the borrowed material should be correctly acknowledged to avoid plagiarism.</li> </ul> Syllabus Change  This syllabus is a guide and every attempt is made to provide an accurate overview of the course. Occasionally, it may be necessary for me to modify the syllabus during the semester due to the progress of the class, experiences of the students, and unforeseen changes in the

	schedule. Changes to the syllabus will be made with advance notice whenever possible. KSD Referrals Implementation of the Knowledge/Skill/Disposition (KSD) referral system was approved by the Division at the Fall 2011 Chaminade Faculty Retreat. The KSD referral system is in place to help undergraduate and graduate students in reaching their goals to become highly-qualified and highly-effective educators and administrators. As our Education Division mission states, we strive “To foster the development of teachers and leaders in education through programs based in the liberal arts tradition, Catholic Marianist values, current research, best practice, and state and professional standards.” Part of this is to ensure that each teacher candidate or educational leader taking our coursework is knowledgeable in the content area, possesses the needed skills to teach that content, and has dispositions that are reflective of an education professional with accompanying Marianist values. Any member of the Education Team, defined as an employee of the Education Division and including adjunct instructors, can initiate a KSD referral to the Dean at any time and for any student taking an education course (see attached form). Referrals can also be made to the Dean for our students taking non-education courses. Required Email Students are required to use their Chaminade University Email to correspond with me. Your email may be accessed through the University Portal at https://portal.chaminade.edu/. Important Dates and Financial Aid Information Contact the Registrar's Office or view this website for important add, drop, and withdrawal dates for this semester. Please be sure to contact your University Financial Aid Counselor before dropping or withdrawing from any class, as this may impact your financial aid status. Please refer to your Student Handbook and the Course Catalog for other important institutional and academic policies including more detailed information regarding Grading, Plagiarism, Classroom Deportment, Freedom of Expression, Add/Drop, Disabilities, and others.
CONCEPTUAL FRAMEWORK	The Division of Education's Conceptual Framework is based upon a set of beliefs that flow from the University's vision and mission statements, the Division's vision and mission statements, and the core academic beliefs of Chaminade University. These values and beliefs are based on the Catholic Marianist principles; a commitment to mentor teacher and educational leader candidates to their fullest potential; a commitment to teaching, scholarship, and research; and a commitment to serve the university and the larger community. This alignment is designed to prepare education professionals who meet the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE) standards for effective teaching my demonstrating professional dispositions and empathy, content knowledge, and the pedagogical/leadership skills to work effectively with a diverse community of learners.

MISSION STATEMENT	The Education Division's mission is to foster the development of knowledgeable, proficient, and reflective teachers and educational leaders. Our programs are based in the liberal arts tradition, Catholic Marianist values, current research, best practice, and professional standards. In this context, we develop educators who demonstrate ethical, effective, and culturally responsive practices, and a commitment to building a just and peaceful society.
MARIONIST VALUES	We promote the characteristics of Marianist universities which include: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1) Education for Formation in Faith (Mana): In the community of learners, reason and personal faith are seen as mutually complementary roads to truth. All scholars are invited to join the larger community of faith, hope, and love.</li> <li>2) Integral, Quality Education (Aloha): The Education Division is committed to an integral, quality education that begins with respect for the complexity and diversity of each person. Subsequently, faculty members attempt to engage the whole person with quality courses and activities that challenge the intellectual, emotional, aesthetic, physical, and ethical dimensions that make up student's life experience.             <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Education is an active process.</li> <li>2. Teaching and learning are reciprocal processes.</li> <li>3. Diversity enriches education by providing many different cultural values and viewpoints.</li> <li>4. Varied instruction for individual differences and learning styles facilitates learning.</li> <li>5. Learning is facilitated by integrating curriculum, using cooperative learning strategies, having high expectations of the learner, and making curriculum relevant to the world outside of the classroom.</li> <li>6. Teachers are responsible for nurturing students' desire to learn.</li> </ol> </li> <li>3) Education and the Family Spirit ('Ohana): The community of learners is a second family which encourages the personal development of each of its members. Mutual respect for all members of the family allows the Marianist-based scholarly community to share responsibility for decision making at all levels.             <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. Learning requires a safe, stimulating environment where each student is nurtured.</li> <li>b. School, community, and family collaboration support learning.</li> </ol> </li> <li>4) Education for Service, Peace, and Justice (Pono): All members of the community strive to serve both the University and the larger surrounding community. Additionally, all members dispense and receive justice to and from each other in both the internal and external communities.             <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. Students must be educated for responsible citizenship, and self-directed lifelong learning.</li> <li>b.
