

ART 499 DIRECTED WORK

STUDENT: DEVONEE THOMAS

SYLLABUS FOR DIRECTED WORK - Spring 1999

The student is required to attend all classes of Periods of Interior Design (ID 215) and take all examinations on a pass/fail basis.

The student will research all major 20th century movements in interior design excepting those that the instructor will preclude.

The student will meet weekly with the instructor, bringing materials, to include texts with quality reproductions of the areas studied. She will report to the ID 215 class one of the areas which she has undertaken.
