Course Requirements:

Readings

Readings will be assigned each week to frame our discussion in class. It is vital that the deadlines are followed so that there is genuine class discussion and an opportunity for peer review and learning. The readings will come primarily from the assigned course texts; however, there will be occasions in which additional readings will be required.

Assignments

Students will complete a number of assignments based on the assigned readings and develop assessment instruments incorporating the strategies discussed in class. The specifics of these assignments are outlined on the course Canvas page.

Collegiality & Professionalism

We will create an open environment where diverse opinions, viewpoints, and perspectives are appreciated and respected. As we perfect the art of teaching, we should be conscious of the fact that our craft can (and should) be approached from multiple perspectives.

Course Communication

Email is the best way to reach me with questions about course assignments or policies. I will answer all emails by the next school day (usually within 24 hours, though weekends may take longer).

Grading:

Assignments should be turned in on the due date noted in the syllabus or otherwise indicated in class; late assignments will result in a loss of points and will negatively impact your grade in the course.

Letter grades for the course will be determined by the following formula:

Assignments (Homework, Reflections, etc.)	120 Points
VoiceThread Discussions	72 Points
Pacific Aviation Museum Project	72 Points

Total:	300 Points

Letter grades are defined as follows:

A (300-270 points)	B (269-240 points)	C (239-210 points)	D (209-180 points)	F (179-0 points)
