MARIANIST EDUCATIONAL VALUES

This class represents one component of your education at Chaminade University of Honolulu. An education in the Marianist Tradition is marked by five principles and you should take every opportunity possible to reflect upon the role of these characteristics in your education and development:

1. Education for formation in faith.
2. Provide an integral, quality education.
3. Educate in family spirit.
4. Educate for service, justice and peace.
5. Educate for adaptation and change.

NATIVE HAWAIIAN VALUES

Education is an integral value in both Marianist and Native Hawaiian culture. Both recognize the transformative effect of a well-rounded, value-centered education on society, particularly in seeking justice for the marginalized, the forgotten, and the oppressed, always with an eye toward God (Ke Akua). This is reflected in the 'Olelo No'eu (Hawaiian proverbs) and Marianist core beliefs:

1. Educate for Formation in Faith (Mana) E ola au i ke akua ('Olelo No'eu 364) May I live by God.
2. Provide an Integral, Quality Education (Na'auao) Lawe i ka ma'alea a kū'ono'ono ('Olelo No'eu 1957) Acquire skill and make it deep.
3. Educate in Family Spirit ('Ohana) 'Ike aku, 'ike mai, kōkua aku kōkua mai; pela iho la ka nohana 'ohana ('Olelo No'eu 1200) Recognize others, be recognized, help others, be helped; such is a family relationship.
4. Educate for Service, Justice and Peace (Aloha) Ka lama kū o ka no'eu ('Olelo No'eu 1430) Education is the standing torch of wisdom.
5. Educate for Adaptation and Change (Aina) 'A'ohe pau ka 'ike i ka hālau ho'okahi ('Olelo No'eu 203) All knowledge is not taught in the same school.

- Assignments/Activities. These assignments will consist of papers, worksheets, and other activities related to the material and readings. Examples of assignments include, but are not limited to: watching/reading something and responding to questions in paper format and developing a juvenile prevention/intervention program and briefing/presenting on it.
- Final Paper. This paper will revolve around a contemporary juvenile justice/delinquency issue. The paper will involve researching a topic using scholarly works, data and findings from original research, and secondary data when applicable. The paper will be 6-7 pages in length.
- Reading Homework (14). For each chapter of the textbook covered in the course (Ch. 1-14), students will be given a set of questions to answer. These questions will be presented in objective

- Exams (3). Exams focus on materials covered in specified sections, concentrating on textbook materials (e.g., reading homework). Other items on an exam may come from supplemental reading materials, classroom lectures and discussions, or other means used throughout the specified section.
- Final Examination. This exam is cumulative and will include materials covered during the entire class term. This exam will have focus on the previously taken exams, but will also include materials from the last section of the term (ch. 13-14). The exam will consist of objective format questions and short answer/essay.

These meetings will usually last 30-45 minutes (possibly more depending on the material).

ATTENDANCE & PARTICIPATION

- Regular Class Attendance. As a policy, if a student misses more than 6 classes throughout the term, a deficiency notice will be sent to the registrar's office. Absences up and beyond 6 will result in the student losing 5% of their overall final grade points for each absence. For those with extenuating circumstances, documentation will be required for an incomplete (to be made up no later than 30 days after the final exam). "Extenuating circumstances" will be determined on a case-by-case basis, but the standard for this sort of exception is considered as circumstances beyond one's control (e.g., medical illness, family emergency). Unexcused absences equivalent to more than a week of classes may lead to a grade reduction for the course. Any absence of two weeks or more must be reported to the Associate Provost and the Records Office by the instructor.

Federal regulations require continued attendance for continuing payment of financial aid. If attendance is not continuous, financial aid may be terminated. When illness or personal reasons necessitate continued absence, the student should officially withdraw from all affected courses. Anyone who stops attending a course without official withdrawal may receive a failing grade.

- Regular classroom participation. Besides simply coming to class, students will contribute to lecture, classroom discussions and exercises, informal presentations, and complete in-class and out-of-class assignments. Contributions to group and individual assignments will be assessed through participation (e.g., extent and depth of discussion), completeness of work turned in, etc. This also means that students will come to class prepared, being able to respond to questions posed by the instructor.

TERMS OF COURSE REQUIREMENTS:

1. Late assignments/projects will be discounted an initial 30% and 10% per day after the due date. Assignments, quizzes, and exams that are not completed by the time items have been graded or discussed in class will receive no credit.
2. Unless otherwise specified, assignments are due at the beginning of class.
3. Quizzes & Exams are to be taken on the days that they are administered. Exceptions are granted only in extenuating circumstances, otherwise loss of all credit will occur. Final exams may be taken earlier if needed and arrangements can be agreed upon; taking the final exam after the scheduled final exam day/time will not be considered unless extenuating circumstances exist.
4. As a policy, opportunities for extra credit WILL NOT be available. All students begin the course with perfect scores, and will have every opportunity to maintain this score.
5. Regular attendance is a must, given the amount of material covered in the course. If you know you will be missing a class in the future due to legitimate reasons, be sure to tell me in advance and provide any necessary paperwork; this will allow me to keep you up-to-date on material you will be missing.
6. Students are expected to read materials as assigned. It is especially important that students read and do work outside of the classroom due to the breadth of material covered during the term.
7. I have an open door when it comes to helping students understand the material and do well in the course. If you would like to meet with me, don't hesitate to approach me and/or email me to set up an appointment.
8. Any instances of academic dishonesty will result in an "FD" (failure for dishonesty) grade for the course and will be subject to the policies and procedures for the college. If you are at all unclear about what constitutes academic dishonesty, refer to catalogued materials.
9. The instructor reserves the right to change the schedule of the syllabus when deemed necessary.

ADA POLICY

Chaminade University of Honolulu is committed to providing reasonable accommodations for persons with documented disabilities. Any student who believes that they may need accommodations must first register with the Counseling Center. Registration with the Counseling Center begins the process of determining whether the student meets the requirements for a documented disability in accordance with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), even if accommodations may not be needed for this particular class. The contact information for the Counseling Center is (808) 735-4845, 739-4603, or by email at counselingcenter@chaminade.edu. It is important for students to contact the Counseling Center as soon as possible so that accommodations are implemented in a timely fashion and to allow your instructor(s) to plan accordingly. Students will be required to provide written documentation to the Counseling Center in order for a determination to be made as to whether the requirements for a documented disability under the ADA are met.

Failure to provide written documentation through the Counseling Center will prevent your instructor from making the necessary accommodations, instructors cannot provide accommodations unless they have been prescribed by the Counseling Center. Once you have received an official notice of accommodations from the Counseling Center, it is also very important to discuss these accommodations directly with your instructor so that they can better support your needs. If you have specific questions regarding your individualized accommodations you may speak directly with your instructor and/or you may contact the Counseling Center.

ACADEMIC CONDUCT POLICY

From the 2018-2019 Undergraduate Academic Catalog (p. 42):

Any community must have a set of rules and standards of conduct by which it operates. At Chaminade, these standards are outlined so as to reflect both the Catholic, Marianist values of the institution and to honor and respect students as responsible adults. All alleged violations of the community standards are handled through an established student conduct process, outlined in the Student Handbook, and operated within the guidelines set to honor both students' rights and campus values. Students should conduct themselves in a manner that reflects the ideals of the University. This includes knowing and respecting the intent of rules, regulations, and/or policies presented in the Student Handbook, and realizing that students are subject to the University's jurisdiction from the time of their admission until their enrollment has been formally terminated.
