Catalog Course Description

Major concepts of accounting and their use in the management of the business firm and in the preparation of corporate financial statements. Emphasis is placed on understanding accounting terminology and management use of accounting data and reports.

Associated Program Learning Outcome (Course Objectives)

This course is intended to provide students with the basic accounting knowledge necessary to succeed in the world of business. Emphasis is placed on understanding basic accounting terminology and concepts and their practical application to business managers.

Accounting is a very difficult subject area. Consequently, students will be expected to contribute a significant amount of time outside of the classroom during the quarter. It is expected that students will need to spend a minimum of 12 – 15 hours per week outside of class to succeed in this course. This includes the 1 hour weekly online sessions held within Canvas through the “Zoom Link”.

Course Learning Outcomes

A – An ability to identify business activity that constitutes financial accounting and distinguish it from managerial accounting.

B - Memorize and apply the seven primary accounts to describe business operating activity, that’s illustrated through journal entries prepared.

C - Memorize and show the steps organizations take to accumulate, journalize and summarize information necessary to create financial statements.

Academic Honesty

Students are responsible for promoting academic honesty at Chaminade by not participating in any act of dishonesty and by reporting any incidence of dishonesty to an instructor or to a University official. Academic dishonesty may include theft of records or examinations, alteration of grades, and plagiarism. Questions of academic dishonesty in a particular class are first reviewed by the instructor who must make a report with recommendations to the Business School Dean. Consequences for academic dishonesty may range from an “F” grade for the work in question to an “F” grade for the course to suspension or dismissal from the University.

Grading and Assignments

Grades will be based on the following:

Pre(CCP) Class Survey	7.5 points
Homework	50 points
Comprehensive Class Project – Application Learning	120 points
Quizzes(Take Home) (1)	30 points
Exams (2)	200 points
Post(CCP) Class Survey	7.5 points
Final Exam(Students Below An “A” Average)	120 points
Total	535 points

	Before Final Exam:	Including Final Exam:
Grades:	420 – 377 points A	535 – 480 points A
	376 – 335 points B	479 – 426 points B

Note that a “D” grade will require the retaking of the course to fulfill this course as a prerequisite as prescribed in the Chaminade Undergraduate Catalog. Students who display a high level of proficiency in time management, prioritizing and understanding of accounting concepts and principles covered by maintaining an average cumulative grade equivalent to an “A”; just prior to the final distribution, will not be required to complete the final exam. Those students whose cumulative grades are below the average of an “A” will be required to take the final exam.

“Nothing in the world can take the place of persistence. Talent will not; nothing is more common than unsuccessful men and women with talent. Genius will not; unrewarded genius is almost a proverb. Education alone will not; the world is full of educated derelicts. Persistence and determination alone are omnipotent.”

— Calvin Coolidge

Homework

The assignments as indicated on the Course Schedule are to be turned-in the class period following the assigned date. All homework assignments are to be turned in through canvas using either an excel spreadsheet, word document or pdf file of handwritten homework. Late homework will be discounted accordingly. Each homework assignment is worth 5 points.

“...there are people who try to look as if they are doing a good and thorough job, and then there are the people who actually damn well do it, for its own sake.”

— John D. MacDonald

Comprehensive Class Project-Application Learning (CCP-AL)

This project involves the completion of a comprehensive individual problem set for a theoretical organization that you will develop within the first week of class. This theoretical organization will undergo several developmental stages throughout the semester that involve:

- 1) Identifying the industry that the organization falls within.
- 2) Selecting a close competitor organization that is publicly traded.
- 3) Forming several (Number to be determined by the Professor) transaction narratives that provide the historical backdrop of how your theoretical organization became a business.
- 4) Forming several (Number to be determined by the Professor) narratives that captures the operations of the organizations for the first quarter of operations.
- 5) Preparing journal entries to account for the narratives formed in stages “3)” and “4)” above.
- 6) Determining the end of period posting balance for all journal entries prepared through T-Accounts.
- 7) Creation of an unadjusted trial balance using the posting balances of the T-accounts formed in stage “6)”.
- 8) Forming several (Number to be determined by the Professor) end of period adjusting transaction narratives.
- 9) Preparing adjusting journal entries to account for the adjusting narratives formed in stages “8)” above.
- 10) Determining the end of period posting balance for all adjusting journal entries prepared through the adjusted T-Accounts.
- 11) Creation of an adjusted trial balance using the posting balances of the adjusted T-accounts formed in stage “10)” as well as information from the unadjusted trial balance prepared in stage “7)”.
- 12) Preparation of your organization’s income statement to account for the first quarter of business activity.
- 13) Preparation of your organization’s statement of retained earnings for the first quarter of business activity.
- 14) Preparation of your organizations balance sheet to account for the first quarter of business activity.

Each Friday we are designating as project workdays, for students to complete and submit the stage that has been assigned. Instructions and resources will be made available to you within the designated “Friday Project Workday Folder” that you may use as resources in assisting you in completing your and submitting the task/stage assigned.

Quizzes

There will be one quiz during the course worth 30 points. The quiz will cover materials from the chapters discussed during our regular class sessions. Quizzes cannot be made up; any missed quiz, regardless of the reason for the absence, will result in a grade of zero. All quizzes will be available through Canvas on the evening of the scheduled class session. You will have from the evening on the day of the class session until 11:59 PM Hawaii-Aleutian Standard Time (HSAT) the designated due date to complete the Quiz (i.e. quizzes are typically due on the evening of the following day of issuance), which is to be placed in the appropriate drop box in Canvas. The timing of Quizzes may be adjusted as the necessity arises to do so. Again, any missed quiz will result in a grade of a zero.

Exams

As indicated on the course schedule, there will be two exams worth 100 points each. Students will lose 5% from your raw score for each day exams are past due up until the date the professor reviews the exam. Student who have not completed their exams prior to the professor's review will receive an automatic zero for that exam.

Final Exam

The Final Exam will be distributed on ~~Day Month ###th~~ Only to those students with grade averages below an "A". The final exam is cumulative and covers chapters 1 – 15. The completed exam is due back for grading on ~~Day Month ###th~~ no later than 12:10pm. The Final Exam is worth 120 points.

Attendance

All students are responsible for the grade that they earn in this class; an essential part of the learning process is being present.

Accept – then act. Whatever the present moment contains, accept it as if you had chosen it. Always work with it, not against it. - Eckhart Tolle

Live Sessions in "Zoom"

It is the students' responsibility to have participated or listened to the playback of any live sessions recorded (i.e. incorrect quiz, exam and project questions will not be thrown out due to a students' failure to review the weekly online sessions).
