

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Description of Course:

English 102 continues to focus on the skills required to produce clear, concise essays. Reading assignments in the The Contemporary Reader will be used as samples of various writing styles. The Handbook will be used to support the reading text and as well as the guide for documentation requirements. The course addresses the requirements of a well researched and documented research paper. The course will cover various methods of in-text documentation, outline formats, and proper identification and listing of source materials.

Objectives of the Course:

This course is designed to improve the student's writing skills with the concentration on the practice and development of research methods.

Required Texts:

Goshgarian, Gary The Contemporary Reader 6th edition. Longman, New York 1999.

Hairston, Maxine, John Ruskiewicz, and Christy Friend. The Scott Foresman Handbook for Writers 5th edition. Longman, New York. 1999.

Grading: from the Chaminade University Handbook

- A - Outstanding scholarship: an unusual degree of intellectual initiative
- B - Superior work done in a consistent and intelligent manner
- C - competent grasp of the subject matter
- D - inferior work of the lowest passing grade; bare minimum
- F - failure to grasp bare minimum of course material; failure to officially withdraw
- I - Incomplete: a portion of the course work not completed for a valid reason. A contract must be signed with the instructor setting requirements and deadline for submission of all required work
- W - Withdrawal: Official withdrawal from course
- C/NC- Credit/No Credit: general elective requirements may be taken on a pass/fail basis

Attendance is required at all class meetings, and students are expected to participate in class discussions of assigned readings.

All assignments are expected to be submitted on time. Late work will be penalized by the loss of a grade standing. Papers #1 and #2 will not be accepted one week past due date. Paper #3 must be submitted on time and will not be accepted for any reason past the due date.

The final grade will be based on the following: Paper #1 will constitute 15% of the final grade. Paper #2 will constitute 25% of the final grade. Paper #3 will count as 50% of the final grade. The final 10% of the grade will be based on other assignments, in class exercises, as well as class attendance and participation.
