Course Description

This course provides an introduction to the field of human resource management. Students learn the implications of organizational behavior theory for the design of HR practices that facilitate employee performance and success. Topics include recruitment and selection, socialization, training and development, performance appraisal, compensation and benefits, and the strategic use of HR in organizational operations. Offered every semester. Prerequisites: BU 200.

Course Overview

In Management of Human Resources students will get a broad overview of the field of human resources and how it fits into the overall scope of the management function. Importantly, students will gain an understanding of how modern human resources (HR) contributes to the overall success of an organization. Students will understand how shifts in technology, management theory, and employee dynamics have expanded the role of HR professionals. Further, they will walk away with tangible ideas of what HR professionals do, and how they make important contributions to organizational strategy, decision-making, and employee retention, motivation, and development.

Program Learning Objectives (PLOs)

PLO1: Communicate effectively regarding business related tasks, in both oral and written modes.

PLO 5: Discuss the legal obligations of organizations and the ethical dilemmas they face, along with appropriate frameworks for addressing these dilemmas.

PLO 8: Use business skills to promote service, justice and peace within community organizations.

Course Learning Objectives (CLOs)

Upon completion of this course students should be able to:

1. Demonstrate the role of HR as a strategic function within an organization.
2. Justify the value of HR to an organization (including turnover costs, training, compensation, and benefits).
3. Evaluate the challenges of HR management.
4. Assess contemporary HR issues.

Marianist Values

- (5) Educate for adaptation and change.

Alignment of Learning Outcomes: PLO, CLO with Marianist Values

	CLO1	CLO2	CLO3	CLO4	CLO5

Program Learning Outcomes (PLOs)	1	1	1	1	1

Methods of Delivery

This class is run as a workshop, meaning, students will be expected to participate in and complete relevant activities to achieve course and program objectives. Methods of delivery include (but are not limited to) lectures, case studies, class exercises and/or activities, discussions, and guest speakers to name a few.

Course Expectations

Your final grade will be based on your performance on exams, quizzes, assignments, class participation, professionalism, and attendance.

- The average student can expect to spend approximately 6-9 hours per week preparing for this class.
- Please DO NOT bring guests/children to class.
- In case of class cancelation, you will be notified via Canvas and your Chaminade email.

Because this class is intended for professional preparation, as a matter of professionalism, I DO NOT accept late work.

Computer Proficiency Expectations

Students in this course are expected to be proficient in the following technology areas:

- Canvas LMS
- Chaminade email
- Microsoft Word (or other word processing software)

Course Attendance Policy

Students are expected to attend class and log in to Canvas daily to check for course announcements, materials, and assignments. Class begins on time. Excessive lateness will be counted as an absence from class. Unexcused absences equivalent to more than a week of class will result in a 20% final grade reduction for the course. More than three weeks of unexcused absences from class will result in failure of the course by the instructor. Excused absences include documented events such as: medically related conflicts, accidents, injuries, deaths, or sports.

Behavioral Expectations

You are expected to conduct yourself in a manner compatible with the college's function as an institute of higher learning. To uphold this principle in the face-to-face classroom, no cell phones, or "side conversations" that disrupt the learning process or interfere with the primary activity are allowed. Laptop computers may be used for taking notes or engaging in class activities. Please refrain from surfing the Internet, or using your computer for anything other than classwork. TEXT MESSAGING DURING CLASS IS NOT ALLOWED. Not only is it disruptive to those around you, it is distracting to the instructor and interrupts the learning environment. Students should silence their cell phones before entering class. I find this to be a very serious matter. Each student in this course has paid to receive an education, and inhibiting the learning of those around you via use of cell phone, personal computer, and/or visitation unrelated to coursework is not allowed. In the face-to-face and online course spaces, civil discourse must be adhered to at all times. When working online in any capacity, students should use proper netiquette at all times.

Every student has the right to a respectful learning environment. In order to provide this right, students must take individual responsibility to conduct themselves in a mature and appropriate manner and will be held accountable for their behavior. Any student who disrupts the class or communicates or behaves inappropriately or disrespectfully, as determined by the instructor and/or institution, will be referred for disciplinary action.

Assessment Methods

Assessment methods include quizzes, exams, oral and written assignments, projects, class discussions, class activities, and group work. Every effort will be made to return all student work within two-weeks of the due date.

Late Work

All work in this course will be due at 11:59PM HST on the assigned due date, at which point online submission boxes will promptly close. This class is designed as professional preparation, therefore late work is NOT accepted. Assignments which are not submitted on or before their due date will receive a zero. If you find that you are having technical difficulties please contact the Chaminade IT Helpdesk for issues related to Chaminade technology. If you have documentation from the Helpdesk indicating that they have identified a problem with the technology, I will allow you to submit the assignment once a resolution has been reached at no penalty to you. If students are unsure of their home technology, they should plan ahead to use the computer lab on-campus in order to submit work in a timely manner. If you have life circumstances that you feel will prohibit you from submitting an assignment on time, please contact me BEFORE the assignment is due to find out possibilities of accommodation.

Grading & Assignments

Class sessions are designed to promote student participation through the discussion of current events in the business world as they relate to the use of quantitative analysis for managerial decision-making processes.

Grading Distribution

Exam #1 = 50 points
Exam #2 = 50 points
Quizzes = 150 points
HR Final Project = 300

HR Cases = 200
Current Events in HR = 150
Participation = 100 points
Total = 1,000 points

Final Grade Requirements

A = 900 or more
B = 800 to 899
C = 700 to 799
D = 600 to 699
F = Below 600

Exams (50 points + 50 points = 100 points) CLO 1, 2, 3, & 4; PLO 5

Two major exams will cover material from class lectures, discussions, activities, guest speakers (if any), handouts, and assigned readings. Exams may include multiple-choice, short-answer and essay questions. There are absolutely no make-up exams without proper documentation, which must be provided prior to the missed exam if at all possible. A missed exam will count as a zero.

Quizzes (15 @ 10 points each = 150 points) CLO 1, 2, 3, & 4; PLO5

Fifteen quizzes will cover material from class lectures, discussions, videos, handouts and assigned readings. Each quiz has approximately 10 to 20 questions. Quizzes are due every Sunday by 11:59PM HST. There are absolutely no make-up quizzes without proper documentation, which must be provided prior to the missed quiz if at all possible. Any missed quiz will count as a zero.

HR Cases (4 @ 50 points each = 200 points) CLO 1, 2, 3, & 4; PLO1, 5, & 8

Students will complete 4 case studies throughout the semester. In general, the best way to truly learn the course content is to examine the successes and failures of real firms who have struggled with human resources problems, issues, opportunities, or challenges. Case studies allow us to review a scenario or situation that actually occurred and analyze both the problems faced by the managers of the firm and potential solutions. Case studies allow students, in general and in HR specifically, to play the role of a manager in the firm and determine how you might address the scenario were you actually in charge. Details will be provided in Canvas.

Current Events in HR (6 @ 25 points each = 150 points) CLO 1, 3, & 4; PLO 1

Each student will individually submit a brief (1-page/3 paragraph) summary of a current event in HR that relates to our textbook reading and/or class discussion. Details will be provided in Canvas.

HR Final Project (300 points) CLO 3, & 4; PLO 1, 5, & 8

Each student will submit a final research paper, infographic, and presentation. The paper should critically examine an issue or topic related to Human Resources. The paper will be followed on by creating an engaging infographic and a presentation on the topic (including relevant action items) intended for an HR manager audience. Details will be provided in Canvas.

Grading Standards

"A" students do not miss classes during the semester. They read and critically engage all the assigned readings before class on their own, and with classmates and the instructor. All assignments are not only complete, but go beyond more than just the minimum requirements. Their assignments are turned in on time or early, exhibit proper style, grammar and format, are well-organized, integrate strategic planning and targeting, and are written precisely and concisely. They take advantage of all rewrite and extra credit opportunities. These students always keep up with current news events, both locally and globally.

"B" students miss a few classes during the semester. They usually read the assigned readings before class. Their assignments exhibit proper style, grammar and format, are well-organized, integrate strategic planning and targeting, and are written precisely and concisely. They take advantage of all rewrite and extra credit opportunities. These students usually keep up with current events.

"C" students miss several classes during the semester. They complete the assigned readings before exams. Written assignments and exams usually exhibit proper style and formatting, but do not always integrate strategic planning and targeting, and are not always well organized or written precisely and concisely. All assignments are turned in on time, and most rewrite opportunities are used. These students sometimes keep up with current events.

“D” students miss four or more classes during the semester and skim assigned readings. Assignments and exams usually exhibit proper style and formatting, but they often lack integrated strategic planning and targeting, and are often not well-organized, or written precisely and concisely. Assignments are not always turned in on time and only some rewrite opportunities are used. They don’t keep up with current events.

“F” students fail to attend class consistently, miss exams, written assignments; don’t use rewrite opportunities.

Suggestions for Success

Manage your time wisely and stay organized! Learn how to use the required technology. Come to class prepared. Engage in the learning, discussions, and activities that take place in the classroom. Don’t be distracted or distract others. Always do your best! ☺

Challenging a Grade on an Individual Assignment

Should a student find at any point during the semester that they wish to challenge a grade they have received on an assignment, they are welcome to do so. Following are the grade challenging guidelines:

- Students must wait 48 hours after receipt of their assignment before challenging the grade
- Grade challenges must be submitted in writing via email, in respectful and professional prose
- Students must articulate, based on the merits of their work (not on circumstances) and the guidelines of the assignment/rubric, why they feel their grade should be amended
- Students have up to 2 weeks to challenge an assignment grade, attempts to challenge a grade after 2 weeks from receiving an assignment back will be automatically forfeited

Students also retain the right to academic grievance for final course grades through standard Chaminade processes should they feel this step is necessary.

Academic Honesty

All work submitted by a student must represent his or her own original ideas, concepts, and current understanding. All sources of information collected during research and utilized in an assignment must be correctly documented to avoid plagiarism. Cheating or plagiarism in any form (intentional or unintentional—including passing quiz access codes to students not present in class) is unacceptable. Violations will be penalized pursuant to the university's academic honesty policy and may also result in disciplinary action.

Violations of the Academic Honesty Code are serious. They harm other students, your professor, and the integrity of the University. Alleged violations will be referred to the Office of Judicial Affairs. If found guilty of dishonesty or plagiarism, a student is subject to a range of penalties, including failure of an assignment, failure of an assignment and withholding of the final course grade until a paper is turned in on the topic of dishonesty or plagiarism, failure of the course, and/or suspension from the University.

- Intentionally using or attempting to use unauthorized materials, information, notes, study aids, or other devices in any academic exercise.

Academic Conduct Policy

From the 2019-2020 Undergraduate Academic Catalog (p. 39):

Any community must have a set of rules and standards of conduct by which it operates. At Chaminade, these standards are outlined so as to reflect both the Catholic, Marianist values of the institution and to honor and respect students as responsible adults. All alleged violations of the community standards are handled through an established student conduct process, outlined in the Student Handbook, and operated within the guidelines set to honor both students' rights and campus values.

Students should conduct themselves in a manner that reflects the ideals of the University. This includes knowing and respecting the intent of rules, regulations, and/or policies presented in the Student Handbook, and realizing that students are subject to the University's jurisdiction from the time of their admission until their enrollment has been formally terminated. Please refer to the Student Handbook for more details. A copy of the Student Handbook is available on the Chaminade website. For further information, please refer to the Student Handbook.

Credit Hour Policy

The unit of semester credit is defined as university-level credit that is awarded for the completion of coursework. One credit hour reflects the amount of work represented in the intended learning outcomes and verified by evidence of student achievement for those learning outcomes. Each credit hour earned at Chaminade University should result in 45 hours of engagement. This equates to one hour of classroom or direct faculty instruction and a minimum of two hours of out-of-class student work each week for approximately fifteen weeks for one semester, 10-week term, or equivalent amount of work over a different amount of time. Direct instructor engagement and out-of-class work result in total student engagement time of 45 hours for one credit. The minimum 45 hours of engagement per credit hour can be satisfied in fully online, internship, or other specialized courses through several means, including (a) regular online instruction or interaction with the faculty member and fellow students and (b) academic engagement through extensive reading, research, online discussion, online quizzes or exams; instruction, collaborative group work, internships, laboratory work, practica, studio work, and preparation of papers, presentations, or other forms of assessment. This policy is in accordance with federal regulations and regional accrediting agencies.

Title IX Compliance Policy

If you have been the victim of sexual misconduct, physical and/or psychological abuse, we encourage you to report this matter promptly.
