University Course Catalog Description

Students will examine theories of race, culture, and socio-economic status and their implications for teaching. Culturally responsive teaching methods, with emphasis on Hawaiian students and diverse groups living in Hawai'i, will be researched. Students will learn about the characteristics of Exceptional Learners and classroom strategies to address their unique learning needs in the classroom.

Course Overview

Welcome to EDUC 633 Diverse Learners. I am excited to work with you this semester! In this course, you will examine theories of race, culture, and socio-economic status and their implications for teaching. You will also gain knowledge of factors that can impact the learning of individuals through their gender, exceptionalities and culture, with an emphasis on Hawaiian students' learning. Some projects you can anticipate are case studies, a Wahi Pana project, creating lesson plans, and a synthesis of IDEA. The aim of this course is to help you create a classroom that is truly inclusive and I look forward to working with you and also learning from your own experiences with diversity!

Mission Statement, Special Education and Marianist Values:

The mission of the Education Division is to foster the education of teachers and leaders in education through programs based in the liberal arts tradition, Catholic Marianists' values, current research, and best practices. The course Diverse Learners incorporates two Marianist characteristics. The aim of the course is to provide our teacher candidates with an integral, quality education based in methods incorporating best practices in the teaching of K-12 students. To educate for service, social justice, peace is another Marianist characteristic that informs this course. Teacher candidates will learn how to differentiate instruction in order to address the learning needs of diverse and exceptional students in the classroom. Social justice is achieved in the classroom by a teacher who can effectively address the various learning needs of diverse and exceptional students.

Model Code of Ethics for Educators

The Model Code of Educator Ethics is intertwined throughout the various activities within this course, as well as the other courses you will take within this program. The responsibility to profession, of professional competence, to our students, to the school, and with the use of technology are integral to all aspects of this course.

- The main focus for MCEE in this course is on Principle III: Responsibility to Students.

Essential Questions: During this course, teacher candidates will explore topics and current research as it pertains to diverse and exceptional learners. By the end of the course, students will be able to answer:

1. How can a teacher candidate create a classroom culture that is inclusive of all students, based on principles of mutual respect and social justice?
2. What are pertinent Hawaiian epistemological, cultural, and linguistic factors that teacher candidates need to know to broaden students' understanding of Hawaiian culture and to enable them to design culturally relevant activities?
3. How can a teacher candidate design lesson plans that are effective in meeting the needs of exceptional students?

Marianist Values:

- Educate for Formation in Faith
- Provide an Integral Quality Education
- Educate in Family Spirit
- Educate for Service, Justice, and Peace
- Educate for Adaptation and Change

WASC Core Competencies:

- Written Communication
- Oral Communication
- Quantitative reasoning
- Critical Thinking
- Information Literacy

Program Learning Outcomes (PLOs):

Upon completion of the M.A. in Teaching, students on Elementary, Secondary, Special Education program will be able to:

1. Synthesize knowledge of learner development, learner differences, diverse students and the learning environment to optimize learning for Elementary, Secondary, Special Education students.
2. Evaluate central concepts, tools of inquiry and structures of the subject matter disciplines for Elementary, Secondary, Special Education students.
3. Utilize formative and summative assessments, to determine, select, and implement effective instructional strategies for Elementary, Secondary, Special Education students.
4. Analyze the history, values, commitments, and ethics of the teaching profession within the school community.
5. Explain the Marianist tradition of providing an integral, quality education within diverse learning communities.

Course Learning Outcomes (CLOs):

EDUC 633 Students will:
CLO 1: Demonstrate knowledge of theories of race, culture, socioeconomic status and issues of gender identity, disability as they connect to teaching.
CLO 2: Describe Hawaiian epistemological, cultural, and linguistic factors that can impact Hawaiian students' learning in the classroom.

Grading: 200-188= A, 187-175= B, 174-163= C, Below this 'F'.

Late postings may result in a loss of points.
 Graduate students need to receive a 'B' grade or better

Grading Scale

Letter grades are given in all courses except those conducted on a credit/no credit basis. Grades are calculated from the student's daily work, class participation, quizzes, tests, term papers, reports and the final examination. They are interpreted as follows:

- A Outstanding scholarship and an unusual degree of intellectual initiative
- B Superior work done in a consistent and intellectual manner
- C Average grade indicating a competent grasp of subject matter
- D Inferior work of the lowest passing grade, not satisfactory for fulfillment of prerequisite course work
- F Failed to grasp the minimum subject matter; no credit given

Course Policies

Late Work Policy:

All assignments should be turned in by the due date. I am willing to accept late work; however, late assignments will receive a lower grade.

Grade of Incomplete:

If students are unable to complete the course due to circumstances beyond their control, the instructor will consider offering a grade of "incomplete". This will provide the student with up to 90 days beyond the end of the term to complete all outstanding course requirements. Please note that a grade of "incomplete" must be discussed with the instructor before the end of the term. If a student does not contact the instructor by the end of the term to discuss the possibility of an incomplete, they will be awarded the grade they have earned to that point.

Writing Policy

APA is the standard for this course. Citations are expected in all writing.

Instructor and Student Communication

Questions for this course can be emailed to the instructor at denise.dugan@chaminade.edu. Online, in-person and phone conferences can be arranged. Response time will take place up to 24-48 hours during the week and could be extended during the weekends.

Cell phones, tablets, and laptops

Out of consideration for your classmates, please set your cell phone to silent mode during class. Students are encouraged to bring laptops or tablets to class as the instructor will assign online activities and readings that will require the use of a laptop or tablet. Laptops and tablets should not be misused, such as checking distracting websites. Use your best judgment and respect your classmates and instructor.

Disability Access

If you need individual accommodations to meet course outcomes because of a documented disability, please speak with me to discuss your needs as soon as possible so that we can ensure your full participation in class and fair assessment of your work. Students with special needs who meet criteria for the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) provisions must provide written documentation of the need for accommodations from Kōkua 'Ike: Center for Student Learning by the end of week three of the class, in order for instructors to plan accordingly. If a student would like to determine if they meet the criteria for accommodations, they should contact the Kōkua 'Ike Coordinator at (808) 739-8305 for further information (ada@chaminade.edu).

Title IX Compliance

Chaminade University of Honolulu recognizes the inherent dignity of all individuals and promotes respect for all people. Sexual misconduct, physical and/or psychological abuse will NOT be tolerated at CUH. If you have been the victim of sexual misconduct, physical and/or psychological abuse, we encourage you to report this matter promptly. As a faculty member, I am interested in promoting a safe and healthy environment, and should I learn of any sexual misconduct, physical and/or psychological abuse, I must report the matter to the Title IX Coordinator. If you or someone you know has been harassed or assaulted, you can find the appropriate resources by visiting Campus Ministry, the Dean of Students Office, the Counseling Center, or the Office for Compliance and Personnel Services.

Attendance Policy

The following attendance policy is from the 2019-2020 Academic Catalog (p. 54-55). Faculty members should also check with their divisions for division-specific guidelines.

Students are expected to attend regularly all courses for which they are registered. Student should notify their instructors when illness or other extenuating circumstances prevents them from attending class and make arrangements to complete missed assignments. Notification may be done by emailing the instructor's Chaminade email address, calling the instructor's campus extension, or by leaving a message with the instructor's division office. It is the instructor's prerogative to modify deadlines of course requirements accordingly. Any student who stops attending a course without officially withdrawing may receive a failing grade.

Unexcused absences equivalent to more than a week of classes may lead to a grade reduction for the course. Any unexcused absence of two consecutive weeks or more may result in being withdrawn from the course by the instructor, although the instructor is not required to withdraw students in that scenario. Repeated absences put students at risk of failing grades.

Students with disabilities who have obtained accommodations from the Chaminade University of Honolulu Tutor Coordinator may be considered for an exception when the accommodation does not materially alter the attainment of the learning outcomes.

Federal regulations require continued attendance for continuing payment of financial aid. When illness or personal reasons necessitate continued absence, the student should communicate first with the instructor to review the options. Anyone who stops attending a course without official withdrawal may receive a failing grade or be withdrawn by the instructor at the instructor's discretion.

Student Conduct Policy

Campus life is a unique situation requiring the full cooperation of each individual. For many, Chaminade is not only a school, but a home and a place of work as well. That makes it a community environment in which the actions of one students may directly affect other students. Therefore, each person must exercise a high degree of responsibility. Any community must have standards of conduct and rules by which it operates. At Chaminade, these standards are outlined so as to reflect both the Catholic, Marianist values of the institution and to honor and respect students as responsible adults. All alleged violations of the community standards are handled through an established student conduct process, outlined in the Student Handbook, and operated within the guidelines set to honor both students' rights and campus values.

Students should conduct themselves in a manner that reflects the ideals of the University. This includes knowing and respecting the intent of rules, regulations, and/or policies presented in the Student Handbook, and realizing that students are subject to the University's jurisdiction from the time of their admission until their enrollment has been formally terminated. Please refer to the Student Handbook for more details. A copy of the Student Handbook is available on the Chaminade website under Student Life.

For further information, please refer to the Chaminade Catalogue.

Credit Hour Policy

The unit of semester credit is defined as university-level credit that is awarded for the completion of coursework. One credit hour reflects the amount of work represented in the intended learning outcomes and verified by evidence of student achievement for those learning outcomes. Each credit hour earned at Chaminade University should result in a minimum of 45 hours of engagement, regardless of varying credits, duration, modality, or degree level. This equates to one hour of classroom or direct faculty instruction and a minimum of two hours of out-of-class student work each week for approximately fifteen weeks for one semester. Terms that have alternative lengths, such as 10 week terms, should have an equivalent amount of faculty instruction and out-of-class student work to meet each credit hour. Direct instructor engagement and out-of-class work result in total student engagement time of 45 hours for one credit. The number of engagement hours may be higher, as needed to meet specific learning outcomes.

Specific Credit Situations

The minimum 45 hours of engagement per credit hour can be satisfied in fully online, internship, or other specialized courses through several means, including (a) regular online instruction or interaction with the faculty member and fellow students and (b) academic engagement through extensive reading, research, online discussion, online quizzes or exams; instruction, collaborative group work, internships, laboratory work, practica, studio work, and preparation of papers, presentations, or other forms of assessment. This policy is in accordance with federal regulations and regional accrediting agencies.

How This Course Meets the Credit Hour Policy

Activity group	Hours of engagement
Assignments	100.5 hours
Reading (Course text)	38 hours
Total	138.5 hours
