Marianist Values

This class represents one component of your education at Chaminade University of Honolulu. An education in the Marianist Tradition is marked by five principles and you should take every opportunity possible to reflect upon the role of these characteristics in your education and development:

1. Education for formation in faith.
2. Provide an integral, quality education.
3. Educate in family spirit.
4. Educate for service, justice and peace, and integrity of creation.
5. Educate for adaptation and change.

This course provides quality education in learning how to draw, and we focus on how to adapt and change to various drawing subjects and how we can learn from drawing and art and apply it to life, but also learn from life and apply it to art. We also explore diversity in art and consider social justice or themes such as family in our chosen topics of art.

Native Hawaiian Values

Education is an integral value in both Marianist and Native Hawaiian culture. Both recognize the transformative effect of a well-rounded, value-centered education on society, particularly in seeking justice for the marginalized, the forgotten, and the oppressed, always with an eye toward God (Ke Akua). This is reflected in the ‘Olelo No’eau (Hawaiian proverbs) and Marianist core beliefs:

1. Educate for Formation in Faith (Mana) E ola au i ke akua (‘Olelo No’eau 364) May I live by God.
2. Provide an Integral, Quality Education (Na’auao) Lawe i ka ma’alea a kū’ono’ono (‘Olelo No’eau 1957) Acquire skill and make it deep.
3. Educate in Family Spirit (‘Ohana) ‘Ike aku, ‘ike mai, kōkua aku kōkua mai; pela iho la ka nohana ‘ohana (‘Olelo No’eau 1200) Recognize others, be recognized, help others, be helped; such is a family relationship.
4. Educate for Service, Justice and Peace (Aloha) Ka lama kū o ka no’eau (‘Olelo No’eau 1430) Education is the standing torch of wisdom.
5. Educate for Adaptation and Change (Aina) ‘A’ohe pau ka ‘ike i ka hālau ho’okahi (‘Olelo No’eau 203) All knowledge is not taught in the same school

Course Activities

Discussion Boards - 35 points per Discussion (25 points for initial post, 10 points for replies)

Weekly discussion board posts on Canvas about readings, videos, and contemporary artists. You are expected to contribute in a meaningful way to the course online community, to use critical thinking to think about your art and others’ art, and to not use Ai to write your discussion posts. Once you write a discussion board post and publish it, then Canvas will allow you to see other classmate’s posts and read them to reply to them.

Weekly Sketchbooks - 5 points each

Draw weekly sketches of anything of your choice (follow weekly Modules in Canvas to-do lists), and upload them to the Student Google Drive folder: https://drive.google.com/drive/folders/1wKnMswv-ls2ai76_oLBAMB5Jq2F6xvOH?usp=share_link You are expected to draw these sketches on any piece of paper and to spend only 5-15 minutes on the sketch in order to have fun with it and not have a lot of pressure.

Individual Assignments -35 points each

You are expected to spend 4 hours total on each larger drawing assignments. Each assignment due date is listed in the course schedule on Canvas, as well as in each module you will find the assignment info with their appropriate due dates. You are expected to draw on one larger piece of paper (Strathmore Drawing Pad, Medium Surface, Medium or Heavy Weight, 18" x 24") for each assignment. You are expected to tape the edges of your drawing so that the edges are clean if you end up showing your art in the gallery art show on campus at the end of the semester.

Final Project & Final Presentation. - 50 points (35 points for final project, 25 points for presentation)

Please read the final project called "Real & Imagined" on Canvas for information, found in Modules weeks 9-12. You have a month to work on this project to really put your all into it and the ultimate goal is to do your best work you've ever done in the semester. Then you are expected to create a short 1-5 minutes video presentation of all of your work you created in the semester and explain you and your drawings grew through this class. You are expected to be confident at describing your art and process after practicing the entire semester in the online discussion board talking about your art and other people's art.

Course Policies

Attendance

This is asynchronous so there is no live class meeting. You are expected to do all the work and keep track of what is due every week. If you do not show up to the course (meaning, post on the discussion boards and submit the work on Canvas and in the google drive folder) for 2 weeks, at any point in the first half of the semester, you will be automatically dropped from the asynchronous course, per Chaminade policy.

Late Work

No late work is accepted without a doctor's note. Only with a doctor's note, late work is accepted up to 1 week past the due date, unless you have chronic health problems then you can meet with me to discuss to give you an extra week extension. You should contact the resource center to register your disability before beginning class if you are able to. Any additional extensions that are not medical related require Dean's or school counselors permission; please contact them to ask them for permission.

Please note that if you are submitting any work late, there is a higher chance that you will not receive any feedback on your work. The course operates in a consecutive manner so it is important to turn work on time to stay on track properly with the course.

From my own life experience, I understand that sometimes life can be very difficult and it is important to reach out to seek professional help. Please also see the counseling center on campus for free counseling for all students. Please also be in contact with the university if you have any serious health issues that need accommodation, ideally prior to the course beginning.

Extra Credit

The only extra credit offered is to submit your artwork to the art show at the end of the semester, if there is an art show. So do not rely on this being an option.
