University Course Catalog Description

This is the third course in the dissertation process where students receive group and individualized support with the dissertation process. Students work directly with their instructor and committee members to analyze their data and determine appropriate presentation methods.

Note: For all dissertation benchmarks, there is no course requirements in Canvas other than Dissertation submission and coordination with your Committee and Chair. Upon completion of this benchmark, the student will advance to the next stage in the dissertation process, EDUC 894 Dissertation IV.

Mission Statement for:

Doctor of Education in Organizational Leadership for Adaptation and Change

The program's mission is based on Marianist values and focused on developing strong leaders who use their knowledge and skills to value diversity, promote social justice, and help organizations adapt and change. Drawing on the Marianist Educational Values of formation in faith; quality education; family spirit; service, justice and peace; and adaptation and change, the program builds on a program of leadership that promotes continuous self-reflection and personal growth.

Marianist Values

- 1. Educate for formation in faith
- 2. Provide an integral quality education
- 3. Educate in family spirit
- 4. Educate for service, justice and peace
- 5. Educate for adaptation and change

Program Learning Outcomes (PLO)

- 1. Apply advanced knowledge and competencies of research and evaluation methods utilized by organizations.
- 2. Utilize advanced knowledge and competencies of leadership and innovation which are grounded in social justice, ethical practices, and cultural awareness.
- 3. Use advanced knowledge and competencies related to how organizations and the people within them develop.

4. Integrate advanced knowledge and competencies of scholarly behaviors for designing, implementing, evaluating, and communicating research relevant to effective organizations.

Course Learning Outcomes (CLO)

- 1. Demonstrate knowledge learned in the program by applying it to real settings. (1, 2)
- 2. Conduct an independent research investigation that contributes to the general body of knowledge in a specific field or profession. (1, 2)
- 3. Solve diverse problems using information and skills acquired in the program to create solutions. (2, 3)
- 4. Make informed decisions based on ethical and legal principles. (2, 3, 4)
- 5. Formulate scholarly arguments supported by academic resources. (4)

Expected Student Outcomes

Data analysis and presentation preparations hold immense significance in your doctoral journey. These skills are the bedrock of rigorous academic research, ensuring the credibility and reliability of your findings. Effective data analysis not only uncovers hidden insights within your research but also enriches the overall quality of your dissertation, allowing you to make a meaningful contribution to your field. Furthermore, the ability to communicate your findings persuasively is essential, as it determines the impact of your work and its potential to influence your field's discourse.

Throughout this course, you will collaborate closely with your dissertation committee members, who will provide invaluable insights and guidance at every stage. We recognize the challenges and rewards that come with this phase of your academic journey, and we are committed to equipping you with the expertise required to excel. Stay engaged and communicate often during this process!

List of Activities/Assignments

These activities are required to successfully complete this benchmark. You will continue to work with your Dissertation Chair/Committee at the beginning of the term. Please contact your Dissertation Chair immediately to discuss a plan for further developing your research this semester, including identifying target dates for each of the activities listed below.

Weeks	Topics	Activities/Assignments
1-10		1) Submit documents to the dissertation Committee Chair using Microsoft
		Word. If the Dissertation Chair uses the reviewing and tracking features in
	Revise Chapters 1-3	Microsoft Word, the student should become proficient with those features.
		2) Submit work that conforms to Chaminade University guidelines for format and style
	In a large many districts	3) Use only a Chaminade University or Canvas LMS account for any e-mail correspondence with the Dissertation Chair.
	Implementation	4) Maintain contact and communication with the Dissertation Chair at least once a month (more frequent is better)
		5) Understand that the working relationship between student and chair is unique and based on a trusting interaction between professionals. The Data collection	student should contact the Dissertation Chair for clarification on points in questions concerning research and writing and for advice and information regarding the dissertation process.
	Compose Chapter 4	6) Utilize the information received from the Dissertation Chair / Committee to make the recommended organizational, content, format, and style changes

Satisfactory Progress

All dissertation content will be submitted to the Dissertation Chair. All assignments must adhere to the APA 7th edition. The continuation of developing an approved dissertation is the culminating activity for this course. Prior to receiving approval (i.e., a Pass grade), students are expected to demonstrate progress by the end of the term in which they are enrolled. The following may be considered as examples of progress:

- searched databases
- downloaded articles
- consulted with chair
- developed design ideas
- created outline of various sections
- read books and articles on study design
- read books and articles on content area
- read books and articles on analysis
- worked on reference section
- worked on format and style of manuscript

- wrote elements of Chapters 1, 2, 3, 4 or 5
- revised elements of Chapters 1, 2, 3, 4, or 5

Grading Criteria

Dissertation I

Letter Grade	Credit
Credit (CR) = Committee Chair approved Proposal/Dissertation Progress	3
In Progress (IP) = Documented progress of Proposal completion, Proposal not	Credit in Progress
yet approved by Committee Chair
No Credit (NC) = $No\ progress\ by\ student$	No Credit

This course is graded Credit/No Credit. Students will continue working on their dissertation proposal (until IRB approval received). Students who fail to submit a proposal or submit a proposal that is not acceptable to the dissertation committee will receive a grade of In Progress (IP) until the proposal has been approved by the dissertation committee. Students with IRB approval will continue progressing in their research working toward completion of Chapters 4 and 5. The following rubric will be used as a guide to ensure the Proposal is acceptable. No activity will result in No Credit.

Rubric Item		Not Met
The proposed study is meaningful for the local research site or the profession.
The candidate presented evidence/background/justification of the research topic/problem/phenomenon.
The candidate presented a preliminary purpose statement and initial research questions.
The preliminary purpose statement and initial research questions are aligned.
The candidate offered examples from current peer-reviewed literature of sources that demonstrate relevance to the study topic.

STUDENT SCHEDULE:

As you each are at different, critical junctures in your research journey, this course is uniquely structured to support your individual progress toward the successful completion of your dissertation proposals and the commencement/continuation of your data collection and management process. This 10-week term will not follow a one-size-fits-all schedule. Instead, recognizing the diversity and distinctiveness of your research endeavors, you are entrusted and expected to craft and adhere to your personal research timelines and milestones. You will need to develop a strategic plan for the next 10 weeks and beyond, considering the specific requirements and objectives of your dissertation. This plan should reflect a thoughtful allocation of time to the key components of your research process, from proposal refinement and literature review to methodology selection, data collection, and initial analysis. Your plan should embody a commitment to continuous, consistent progress. The forthcoming weeks are crucial, and a well-organized, disciplined approach will be indispensable for staying on track and meeting your academic and research goals.

Academic Honesty

Academic honesty is an essential aspect of all learning, scholarship, and research. It is one of the values regarded most highly by academic communities throughout the world. Violations of the principle of academic honesty are extremely serious and will not be tolerated.

Students are responsible for promoting academic honesty at Chaminade by not participating in any act of dishonesty and by reporting any incidence of academic dishonesty to an instructor or to a University official. Academic dishonesty may include theft of records or examinations, alteration of grades, and plagiarism, in addition to more obvious dishonesty.

Questions of academic dishonesty in a particular class are first reviewed by the instructor, who must make a report with recommendations to the Dean of the Academic Division. Punishment for academic dishonesty will be determined by the instructor and the Dean of Academic Division and may include an "F" grade for the work in question, an "F" grade for the course, suspension, or dismissal from the University.

For the most up to date information, please refer to the Academic Honesty Policy on the Chaminade University Catalog website.

Violations of Academic Integrity: Violations of the principle include, but are not limited to:

- Cheating: Intentionally using or attempting to use unauthorized materials, information, notes, study aids, or other devices in any academic exercise.
- Fabrication and Falsification: Intentional and unauthorized alteration or invention of any information or citation in an academic exercise. Falsification is a matter of inventing or counterfeiting information for use in any academic exercise.
- Multiple Submissions: The submission of substantial portions of the same academic work for credit (including oral reports) more than once without authorization.
- Plagiarism: Intentionally or knowingly presenting the work of another as one's own (i.e., without proper acknowledgment of the source).
- Abuse of Academic Materials: Intentionally or knowingly destroying, stealing, or making inaccessible library or other academic resource materials.
- Complicity in Academic Dishonesty: Intentionally or knowingly helping or attempting to help another to commit an act of academic dishonesty.

Plagiarism includes, but is not limited to:

- Copying or borrowing liberally from someone else's work without his/her knowledge or permission; or with his/her knowledge or permission and turning it in as your own work.
- Copying of someone else's exam or paper.
- Allowing someone to turn in your work as his or her own.
- Not providing adequate references for cited work.
- Copying and pasting large quotes or passages without properly citing them.

While AI technologies can be useful tools for research and learning, the Academic Honesty policies apply when using these technologies. The use of AI is not permitted to compose essays or produce content for assignments and exams. Students should give proper credit to sources when using information obtained through AI tools or other sources. It is essential that we uphold academic integrity while fostering a culture of creativity and critical thinking.

Title IX and Nondiscrimination Policy

Chaminade University of Honolulu is committed to providing a learning, working and living environment that promotes the dignity of all people, inclusivity and mutual respect and is free of all forms of sex discrimination and gender-based violence, including sexual assault, sexual harassment, gender-based harassment, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking. As a member of the University faculty, I am required to immediately report any incident of sex discrimination or gender-based violence to the campus Title IX Coordinator.

Chaminade University of Honolulu does not discriminate on the basis of sex and prohibits sex discrimination in any education program or activity that it operates, as required by Title IX and its regulations, including in admission and employment. Inquiries about Title IX may be referred to the University's Title IX Coordinator, the U.S. Department of Education's Office for Civil Rights, or both and contact information may be found at the Chaminade University Title IX Office Contact Information and Confidential Resources website.

The University's Nondiscrimination Policy and Grievance Procedures can be located on the University webpage at: https://chaminade.edu/compliance/title-ix-nondiscrimination-policies-procedures/

To report information about conduct that may constitute sex discrimination or make a complaint of sex discrimination under Title IX, please refer to the Campus Incident Report form. Chaminade University of Honolulu prohibits sex discrimination in any education program or activity that it operates. The NOTICE of NONDISCRIMINATION can be found here: Notice of Nondiscrimination.

Disability Access

Chaminade University of Honolulu offers accommodations for all actively enrolled students with disabilities in compliance with Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) of 1990, and the ADA Amendments Act (2008).

Students are responsible for contacting Kokua Ike: Center for Student Learning to schedule an appointment. Verification of their disability will be requested through appropriate documentation and once received it will take up to approximately 2–3 weeks to review them. Appropriate paperwork will be completed by the student before notification will be sent out to their instructors. Accommodation paperwork will not be automatically sent out to instructors each semester, as the student is responsible to notify Kokua Ike via email at ada@chaminade.edu each semester if changes or notifications are needed.

Credit Hour Policy

This is a three-credit hour course requiring 135 clock hours of student engagement, per the official CUH Credit Hour Policy. Students enrolled in this course are anticipated to spend 135 hours researching and writing their dissertation projects. There will be an additional work required beyond what is listed here (collaborating with Committee/Dissertation Chair) and other activities associated with writing/researching a dissertation.

Educator Ethics

The Model Code of Educator Ethics is intertwined throughout the various activities within this course, as well as the other courses you will take within this program. The responsibility to profession, of professional competence, to our students, to the school, and with the use of technology are integral to all aspects of this course.
