Course Description & Materials

University Course Description

This course offers the student an opportunity to explore the most important concepts, techniques, ethics, and skills of school counseling within a practicum experience. Classroom activities will develop skills and techniques of individual and group counseling, relate theory to application in an educational setting(s), and develop client record keeping skills. Classroom activities will focus on developing standards-based school counselor competencies as described in the MSCP Practicum Handbook: Appendix A, in the Hawaii Teachers Standards Board School Counselor Performance Standards, and in the American School Counselor Association Standards. To meet these competencies, students will spend 100 hours in a school setting where they will counsel students under supervision of a site supervisor. The students' field experience will be evaluated by the field site supervisor according to the students' development in each of the areas listed in the Supervisor's Evaluation, Appendix K.

It is imperative that students keep all syllabi from all courses taken, while in the MSCP program to facilitate the application process for licensing, certification, doctorate school application, etc.

Course Overview

Third Benchmark Course

Supervised experience in counseling utilizing videotapes, role-playing, audiotapes, and demonstrations. Both group and individualized instruction and supervision are stressed in didactic and experiential settings. Students will spend 100 hours (50 direct service hours, 50 administrative hours) at a practicum site under the supervision of a licensed school counselor.

Prerequisites: PSY 611, 636, 771.

Course Approach

This course is designed to be interactive, full of dialog, and conversation. Every class will begin with an energizer to build relationships with the students and the instructor. While the course is theoretically based upon counseling skills and theories, scenarios will be presented for the students to analyze and critique. Opportunities will be given for students to discuss "real life" situations. The instructor believes that learning can occur most optimally when students are actively, cooperatively, and meaningfully engaged. Students are expected to attend class fully prepared and ready to learn.

ACA 2014 Code of Ethics

Section C: Professional Responsibility

Introduction

... counselors engage in self-care activities to maintain and promote their own emotional, physical, mental, and spiritual well-being to best meet their professional responsibilities.

C.2.g: Impairment

Counselors monitor themselves for signs of impairment from their own physical, mental, or emotional problems and refrain from offering or providing professional services when impaired. They seek assistance for problems that reach the level of professional impairment, and, if necessary, they limit, suspend, or terminate their professional responsibilities until it is determined that they may safely resume their work. Counselors assist colleagues or supervisors in recognizing their own professional impairment and provide consultation and assistance when warranted with colleagues or supervisors showing signs of impairment and intervene as appropriate to prevent imminent harm to clients.

Students with disabilities who have obtained accommodations from the Chaminade University of Honolulu ADA Coordinator may be considered for an exception when the accommodation does not materially alter the attainment of the learning outcomes.

Federal regulations require continued attendance for continuing payment of financial aid. When illness or personal reasons necessitate continued absence, the student should communicate first with the instructor to review the options. Anyone who stops attending a course without official withdrawal may receive a failing grade or be withdrawn by the instructor at the instructor's discretion.

Academic Conduct Policy

From the 2019-2020 Undergraduate Academic Catalog (p. 39):

Any community must have a set of rules and standards of conduct by which it operates. At Chaminade, these standards are outlined so as to reflect both the Catholic, Marianist values of the institution and to honor and respect students as responsible adults. All alleged violations of the community standards are handled through an established student conduct process, outlined in the Student Handbook, and operated within the guidelines set to honor both students' rights and campus values.

Students should conduct themselves in a manner that reflects the ideals of the University. This includes knowing and respecting the intent of rules, regulations, and/or policies presented in the Student Handbook, and realizing that students are subject to the University's jurisdiction from the time of their admission until their enrollment has been formally terminated. Please refer to the Student Handbook for more details. A copy of the Student Handbook is available on the Chaminade website.

For further information, please refer to the Student Handbook which is linked annually on the following webpage: <https://chaminade.edu/current-students/>

Credit Hour Policy

The unit of semester credit is defined as university-level credit that is awarded for the completion of coursework. One credit hour reflects the amount of work represented in the intended learning outcomes and verified by evidence of student achievement for those learning outcomes. Each credit hour earned at Chaminade University should result in 45 hours of engagement. This equates to one hour of classroom or direct faculty instruction and a minimum of two hours of out-of-class student work each week for approximately fifteen weeks for one semester, 10-week term, or equivalent amount of work over a different amount of time. Direct instructor engagement and out-of-class work result in total student engagement time of 45 hours for one credit.

The minimum 45 hours of engagement per credit hour can be satisfied in fully online, internship, or other specialized courses through several means, including (a) regular online instruction or interaction with the faculty member and fellow students and (b) academic engagement through extensive reading, research, online discussion, online quizzes or exams; instruction, collaborative group work, internships, laboratory work, practicum, studio work, and preparation of papers, presentations, or other forms of assessment. This policy is in accordance with federal regulations and regional accrediting agencies.

This is a three-credit hour course requiring 135 clock hours of student engagement, per the official CUH Credit Hour Policy. Students enrolled in this course are expected to spend about 35 hours in class; 20 hours researching and writing a case study; 28 hours writing and revising their Capstone Guidance program; 2 hours preparing and filming a video; 10 hours documenting their practicum hours and writing their journals; and 2 hours preparing and conducting a guidance lesson. There will be an additional 100 hours of work required beyond what is listed here as students fulfill their practicum hours at their respective site(s). This additional work will average about 10 hours per week.

Marianist Values

This class represents one component of your education at Chaminade University of Honolulu. An education in the Marianist Tradition is marked by five principles and you should take every opportunity possible to reflect upon the role of these characteristics in your education and development:

1. Educate for Formation in Faith

Catholic Universities affirm an intricate relationship between reason and faith. As important as discursive and logical formulations and critical thinking are, they are not able to capture all that can be and ought to be learned. Intellectual rigor coupled with respectful humility provide a more profound preparation for both career and life. Intellectual rigor characterizes the pursuit of all that can be learned. Respectful humility reminds people of faith that they need to learn from those who are of other faiths and cultures, as well as from those who may have no religious faith at all.

2. Provide an Excellent Education

In the Marianist approach to education, “excellence” includes the whole person, not just the technician or rhetorician. Marianist universities educate whole persons, developing their physical, psychological, intellectual, moral, spiritual and social qualities. Faculty and students attend to fundamental moral attitudes, develop their personal talents and acquire skills that will help them learn all their lives. The Marianist approach to education links theory and practice, liberal and professional education. Our age has been deeply shaped by science and technology. Most recently, information and educational technologies have changed the way faculty and students research and teach. At Marianist Universities, two goals are pursued simultaneously: an appropriate use of information technology for learning, and the enhancement of interaction between students and teachers. As Catholic, Marianist Universities seek to embrace diverse peoples and understand diverse cultures, convinced that ultimately, when such people come together, one of the highest purposes of education is realized: a human community that respects every individual within it.

3. Educate in Family Spirit

Known for their strong sense of community, Marianists have traditionally spoken of this sense as “family spirit.” Marianist educational experience fosters the development of a community characterized by a sense of family spirit that accepts each person with loving respect, and draws everyone in the university into the challenge of community building. Family spirit also enables Marianist universities to challenge their students, faculty and staff to excellence and maturity, because the acceptance and love of a community gives its members the courage to risk failure and the joy of sharing success.

4. Educate for Service, Justice, and Peace

The Marianist approach to higher education is deeply committed to the common good. The intellectual life itself is undertaken as a form of service in the interest of justice and peace, and the university curriculum is designed to connect the classroom with the wider world. In addition, Marianist universities extend a special concern for the poor and marginalized and promote the dignity, rights and responsibilities of all people.

5. Educate for Adaptation to Change

In the midst of rapid social and technological change, Marianist universities readily adapt and change their methods and structures so that the wisdom of their educational philosophy and spirituality may be transmitted even more fully. “New times call for new methods,” Father Chaminade often repeated. The Marianist university faces the future confidently, on the one hand knowing that it draws on a rich educational philosophy, and on the other fully aware for that philosophy to remain vibrant in changing times, adaptations need to be made.

Selected from Characteristics of Marianist Universities: A Resource Paper, Published in 1999 by Chaminade University of Honolulu, St. Mary’s University and University of Dayton. Each of these characteristics are integrated, to varying degrees, in this course.

Native Hawaiian Values

Education is an integral value in both Marianist and Native Hawaiian culture. Both recognize the transformative effect of a well-rounded, value-centered education on society, particularly in seeking justice for the marginalized, the forgotten, and the oppressed, always with an eye toward God (Ke Akua). This is reflected in the 'Ōlelo No'eau (Hawaiian proverbs) and Marianist core beliefs:

1. Educate for Formation in Faith (Mana) E ola au i ke akua ('Ōlelo No'eau 364) May I live by God.
2. Provide an Integral, Quality Education (Na'auao) Lawe i ka ma'alea a kū'ono'ono ('Ōlelo No'eau 1957) Acquire skill and make it deep.
3. Educate in Family Spirit ('Ohana) 'Ike aku, 'ike mai, kōkua aku kōkua mai; pela iho la ka nohana 'ohana ('Ōlelo No'eau 1200) Recognize others, be recognized, help others, be helped; such is a family relationship.
4. Educate for Service, Justice and Peace (Aloha) Ka lama kū o ka no'eau ('Ōlelo No'eau 1430) Education is the standing torch of wisdom.
5. Educate for Adaptation and Change (Aina) 'A'ohe pau ka 'ike i ka hālau ho'okahi ('Ōlelo No'eau 203) All knowledge is not taught in the same school

Six (6) Pillars of Counselor Fitness

(Developed by Dr. Blendine Hawkins, Pd.D., Assistant Professor of Psychology at Chaminade University of Honolulu)

Humility & Openness

Counseling performance enhanced by acceptance of new information, empathizing with others' opinions, experiences, and reality, seeking out new learning experiences, keen curiosity about new/novel situations.

Reflexivity

Counseling performance enhanced by designing and taking ownership of a personal/professional development plan by engaging in a continual process of reflection, critical thinking, and self-assessment by using various forms of feedback about one's own effectiveness, being receptive, and responding professionally to feedback, including assessment data, supervision and consultation, client feedback, personal therapy, and evidence-based research.

Psychological Flexibility & Adaptability

Emotional Stability & Self-Control

Counseling performance enhanced by one's internal balance and maintaining a state of emotional stability, successfully separating one's personal feelings from one's clinical work, having a high tolerance for ambiguity and other people's expressed emotions, having an in-the-moment awareness of own emotional triggers and fluctuations, and engaging in impulse and self-control in relationships with clients, supervisors, and colleagues.

Self-Awareness, Self-Monitoring, & Self-Care

Counseling performance enhanced by a commitment to self-awareness and to examine own belief systems, values, needs, biases, and limitations and the effects of "self" honestly and objectively on one's work with clients while maintaining ethical and healthy boundaries, in addition to demonstrating an understanding of the importance of regularly monitoring and caring for self.

Empathy

Counseling performance enhanced by having a warm understanding and open-minded acceptance of other viewpoints, the ability to see things from another person's perspective, and a desire to truly understand their experiences of pain and injustice while creating an environment of cultural safety, and in counseling, the context is concerned with facilitating the expression of other's thoughts and feelings.

Course Activities

1. Students will give the professor a copy of their electronic Log Summary to complete 50 direct and 50 indirect hours on a weekly basis. (Appendix E). Make sure to keep a signed copy for yourself. Time logs will not be accepted without Site-Supervisor signature. (mandatory)

2. Students will email or give the professor a weekly journal reflecting on their activities of the week. (Appendix H) 10 points

3. Students will type out and present a Case Study and turn it into the professor with accompanying School Counseling Case Notes (Appendix D) for students they have seen for a minimum of three counseling sessions. Also include in your report a formal observation using your school site's form or request one from the instructor. Report your impressions on a student you have serviced during this term. (See the format attached to this syllabus.) This assignment creates an opportunity for students to integrate important theoretical perspectives in counseling, think critically about applying empirically derived research and behavioral interventions to the treatment of the student's support plan, and formulating diagnostic impressions through writing and maintaining clinic notes. Your report to the class will be on your overall general knowledge of the student, the student's problem behavior, and the development of his/her support plan. Please use initials in your case-study report. The case study must be given to the professor with the Informed Consent Form (Appendix C). This case study must also be given to the professor with at least one relevant research article that relates to the presenting problem.

4. Video Presentation – Each student will present a video of an individual counseling session, a small group counseling session, or a guidance lesson. The video will not last more than 15 minutes and will be viewed by the instructor and the class. Appendix F and the appropriate consent form will be turned in on the day of the video presentation. 20 points

5. Each student will be required to facilitate and conduct a Guidance Lesson Presentation/Mock Group amongst the class members. The entire lesson from start to finish shall not exceed 20 minutes. A copy of the lesson must be made for the professor. Each student will be graded according to their preparation and the delivery of the lesson to their targeted grade level audience. (Refer to attached guide in syllabus.) 15 points

6. Each student will submit a complete Guidance Program of their own choice of topic as part of the Capstone Research Project. Each student will create 5 sessions addressing a topic of concern for a specific population of students that is done in collaboration with the site supervisor and based on the needs of the school. (See appendix U) Sections, 1, 2, and 3 should be completed by week 10. All sessions will document the ASCA Mindsets & Behaviors for Student Success and the DOE GLO's. Components that should be included can be found in appendix U, located on page 108 of the 2023- 2024 School Counseling Practicum & Internship Handbook. The complete guidance program will be turned in to the instructor during the 10th week of the term. 10 points

7. Each student will be evaluated by their Site supervisor(s) on their professional and personal competence at their school site(s). The purpose of the Supervisor's Evaluation of School Counseling Student (Appendix K) is to ensure that students are developing an acceptable standard of performance within the school counseling field as primarily determined by the Site Supervisor(s). Each student will need to submit a satisfactory rating (“acceptable,” “above,” or “far above expectation” within all categories of Appendix K to receive credit. Any area indicating “below expectation” or “far below expectation” will require intervention by the instructor, Internship Coordinator, and/or Clinical Director, and may result in the student receiving no credit for this assignment. The Supervisor's Evaluation of School Counseling Student will count towards 25 percent of the final grade for this course. Successfully passing all active sites is required to obtain credit for this course assessment. Failure to successfully pass a Site Supervisor’s Evaluation of School Counseling Student (as determined by not being recommended to advance in the School Counseling program by the student’s Site Supervisor) will result in a letter grade of “C” for the course, and therefore the student will not progress to Internship A. The Student Evaluation of Staff/Site form (Appendix I) and the Student Evolution of Site Supervisor form (Appendix J) are also due the last day of class. Each student will fill out with their Instructor the Professional and Personal Competencies Form (Appendix L) and the Practicum Service Logs Summary Form (Appendix M). This will be done the last class session and be turned in as part of the student’s portfolio. 25 points
