Marianist Values

This class represents one component of your education at Chaminade University of Honolulu. An education in the Marianist Tradition is marked by five principles and you should take every opportunity possible to reflect upon the role of these characteristics in your education and development:

1. Education for formation in faith.
2. Provide an integral, quality education.
3. Educate in family spirit.
4. Educate for service, justice and peace, and integrity of creation.
5. Educate for adaptation and change.

This course will address and stress the importance of justice and peace. Now more than ever, as Social Studies educators we need to search for ways to improve the conditions of others. As our world changes, we must balance ideas and successful traditions of the past while moving forward with innovation and change that may lead us to a more peaceful and better world that enriches the lives of all.

Native Hawaiian Values

Education is an integral value in both Marianist and Native Hawaiian culture. Both recognize the transformative effect of a well-rounded, value-centered education on society, particularly in seeking justice for the marginalized, the forgotten, and the oppressed, always with an eye toward God (Ke Akua). This is reflected in the ‘Ōlelo No‘eau (Hawaiian proverbs) and Marianist core beliefs:

1. Educate for Formation in Faith (Mana) E ola au i ke akua (‘Ōlelo No‘eau 364) May I live by God.
2. Provide an Integral, Quality Education (Na‘auao) Lawe i ka ma‘alea a kū‘ono‘ono (‘Ōlelo No‘eau 1957) Acquire skill and make it deep.
3. Educate in Family Spirit (‘Ohana) ‘Ike aku, ‘ike mai, kōkua aku kōkua mai; pela iho la ka nohana ‘ohana (‘Ōlelo No‘eau 1200) Recognize others, be recognized, help others, be helped; such is a family relationship.
4. Educate for Service, Justice and Peace (Aloha) Ka lama kū o ka no‘eau (‘Ōlelo No‘eau 1430) Education is the standing torch of wisdom.
5. Educate for Adaptation and Change (Aina) ‘A‘ohe pau ka ‘ike i ka hālau ho‘okahi (‘Ōlelo No‘eau 203) All knowledge is not taught in the same school

Alignment of Course Learning Outcomes

Course Activities

Discussions

Online discussions are an integral part of this class. It is my hope that you will not only learn from me but your classmates. An online discussion prompt will be posted on Mondays. You will have to Thursday to answer your prompt. The prompts should be answered thoroughly, will textual evidence, connections to the assignments and other class activities. By Sunday midnight you should include your responses to another student who has not received a response. Again, it should be detailed and respectful. Please make a note of your words and tone in your discussions. Have aloha for one another. It's a kākou thing. We are all in this together.

Homework

Please submit all assignments well and on time. Please notice when the time and date the assignments are due. All assignments are on Canvas and will usually be released on Sunday night or Monday morning.

Assessments (Milestones):

This course is utilizing a Flex model, meaning the only due dates you have are the two Milestone Assignments, everything else can be completed on your own schedule (as long as you have them finished by the end of the term).

- Milestone 1 is due on the 14th day of this course. You may be administratively dropped from the course if you do not complete this assignment by the deadline
- Milestone 2 is due in Module 6 of this course. Failure to complete this assignment by the due date will result in a 5% deduction to your overall course grade (e.g. if your overall course grade is 95% but you did not complete the assignment Milestone 2 by the due date, your overall grade will drop to 90%)

Final Project

Your final project will be to a Social Studies Unit Plan for your designated teaching area.

Course Policies

Late Work

All assignments should be turned in by the due date. I am willing to accept late work up to one week; however, all late assignments will receive a lower grade.

Important Note On Late Discussion Posts:

The success of the course rests on the quality of these discussions. Without time to read and respond to your peers, our shared classroom community (and the possibilities for learning therein) will suffer. As a result, late discussion posts will receive at most 50% credit. Posts that are more than one week late will receive no credit.

Changes to the Syllabus

While the provisions of this syllabus are as accurate and complete as possible, your instructor reserves the right to change any provision herein at any time. Every effort will be made to keep you advised of such changes, and information about such changes will be available from your instructor.

Grades of Incomplete

If students are unable to complete the course due to circumstances beyond their control, the instructor will be considering offering a grade of “incomplete”. This will provide the student with 30 days beyond the end of the term to complete all outstanding course requirements. Please note that a grade of “incomplete” must be disclosed with the instructor before the end of the term. If a student does not contact the instructor by the end of the term to discuss the possibility of an incomplete, they will be awarded the grade they have earned to that point.

Final Grades

Final grades are submitted to Self-Service:

A = 90% and above

B = 80-89%

C = 70-79%

D = 60-69%

F = 59% and below
