Students will translate basic communication theory into practical methods for developing effective communication skills. Principles of message development and delivery will also be examined with opportunities for students to present speeches before an audience. Students will work on enhancing their interpersonal and group communication skills through role-playing and group discussions.

Learning outcomes

After completion of Communication 101, the student will be able to:

- Research, organize and outline an effective speech
- Deliver a well-planned presentation of ideas through effective oral delivery
- Use the tools and concepts covered in the textbook and lecture to create effective communication in group settings
- Use at least three different oral communication strategies in one-on-one, group and class communication settings.

Attendance

Attendance for this class follows the guidelines for Sacred Hearts Academy. As such, you must notify the administration office for absences. However, your final grade will be severely hurt if you miss class for non-emergency reasons. In-class assignments and quizzes cannot be made up if missed for a non-emergency reason. Class participation and attendance are 10% of your final grade. You are strongly encouraged to attend every class.

The syllabus is subject to change at any time, and changes will be announced in class. If you cannot attend a class, please email the instructor about anything you might have missed. If you miss a class due to an emergency (medical or family), speak with the instructor about making up the quiz and/or assignments.

Deadlines

Deadlines are critical. Barring an emergency, your grade will suffer for late quizzes, papers and assignments. The first missed deadline will result in one letter grade lower on that assignment than what you would have received if you had turned it in on time. (For example, if your paper would have received a 45/50 if it was turned in on time, the late paper will receive a 40/50.) The second missed deadline will result in two letter grades lower. The third missed deadline will result in a 0.

You will have ONE WEEK after the original deadline to turn in a late assignment. After that, the assignment – regardless of whether it is a first missed deadline or the second missed deadline – will result in a 0. If an assignment is due at the start of class, coming to class late – even by just one minute – is a missed deadline. For assignments to be turned in by email, one minute late is a missed deadline.

If you are going to miss a deadline, contact me before the deadline.

Barring an emergency or excused absence, in-class speeches, quizzes and exams cannot be made up if missed.

Quizzes

There will be a current events quiz every Monday starting Sept. 15 (unless otherwise noted) to the major news of the prior week. Since this is a mass communications course, you will be expected to consume the news and other media and know what is going on locally, nationally and internationally on a daily basis. The news quizzes will be posted in Canvas.

Reading Reflections and journal

For each chapter, you are to write a question about what you didn't understand and a comment about what you learned in your journal. You must bring your journal to each class session.

Credit-hour policy

This is a three-credit-hour course requiring at least 135 clock hours of student engagement, per the official CUH Credit Hour Policy. Students enrolled in this course are expected to spend about:

*35 hours in class

*28 hours preparing for the weekly current events quizzes (2 hours per week)

*16 hours taking the eight reading quizzes

*1 hour preparing for the Introductory Speech

*2 hours preparing for the first Impromptu Speech

*25 hours preparing for the Informative Speech (topic, research, outline, writing, editing, practicing)

*25 hours preparing for the Persuasive Speech (topic, research, outline, writing, editing, visual aids, practicing)

*10 hours studying for the two exams

TOTAL: 142 hours

Academic integrity

Fabrication, plagiarism and cheating will not be tolerated. All assignments should be original work done by the student for this class. Use of work that is not credited to the original source, or use of someone else's speech or written material is a serious academic offense and will not be tolerated. Communication Department policy requires that, on the first offense, plagiarized assignments will be given an automatic 0 and the student's final grade will be reduced by one letter grade. A second offense will result in an automatic failure of the class.

Expectations

*Come to class ready – mentally and physically – to participate and learn.

*As always – whether in the classroom or in Canvas – ALL participants will be treated respectfully, ALL views will be allowed to be voiced, respectfully, and ALL perspectives are encouraged to be shared.

*Do not hesitate to ask for clarification or for help. If you are confused, the odds are a classmate is as well. Speak up!

BREAKDOWN

All grades will be determined using the following percentage scale in the event that grading activities are adjusted in number and points applied. How your percentage is determined will be total possible points divided by the total earned points.

90-100% : A : Outstanding scholarship and an unusual degree of intellectual initiative

80-89% : B : Superior work done in a consistent and intellectual manner

70-79%: C : Average grade indicating a competent grasp of the subject

65-69%: D : Inferior work of the lowest passing grade, not satisfactory for the fulfillment of prerequisite course work

Less than 65%: F : Failed to grasp the minimum subject matter; no credit given

What's a "Grade?"

"A" students do not miss classes during the semester. They read and critically engage all the assigned readings before class on their own, and with classmates and the instructor. All assignments are not only complete but go beyond more than just the minimum requirements. Their oral presentations are delivered on time, exhibit proper style, grammar, and format, are well-organized, integrate strategic planning and targeting, and are outlined precisely and concisely. They take advantage of all rewrite and extra credit opportunities. These students always keep up with current news events, both locally and globally.

"B" students miss a few classes during the semester. They usually read the assigned readings before class. Their speeches exhibit proper style, grammar, and format, are well-organized, integrate strategic planning and targeting, and are written precisely and concisely. They take advantage of all rewrite and extra credit opportunities. These students usually keep up with current events.

"C" students miss several classes during the semester. They complete the assigned readings before exams. Written assignments and exams usually exhibit proper style and formatting, but do not always integrate strategic planning and targeting, and are not always well organized or written precisely and concisely. All speeches are presented on time, and most rewrite opportunities are used. These students sometimes keep up with current events.

"D" students miss four or more classes during the semester and skim assigned readings. Assignments and exams usually exhibit proper style and formatting, but they often lack integrated strategic planning and targeting, and are often not well-organized, or written precisely and concisely. Speeches are not always presented on time and only some rewrite opportunities are used. They don't keep up with current events.

"F" students fail to attend class consistently, miss exams and speeches, written assignments; don't use rewrite opportunities.

Grades of "Incomplete"

Incomplete grades are reserved for cases of illnesses and other emergencies that cause a student to be unable to complete the course by the due date. In such cases, the instructor has the option of issuing an "incomplete" grade at the end of the semester. Requests for an "incomplete" must be accompanied by substantive documentation.

Please note: This syllabus is not set in stone and is subject to change. It is imperative you attend class as changes will often be announced in class. Please contact the instructor with any questions.

NOTE: A “C” or better is required as a passing grade at Chaminade for a course that serves as a prerequisite for another course. While a “D” is a passing grade, you must have a “C” because this course is required for several upper division level (300 and above) courses.

Marianist Values

This class represents one component of your education at Chaminade University of Honolulu. An education in the Marianist Tradition is marked by five principles and you should take every opportunity possible to reflect upon the role of these characteristics in your education and development:

1. Education for formation in faith
2. Provide an integral, quality education
3. Educate in family spirit
4. Educate for service, justice and peace
5. Educate for adaptation and change

Native Hawaiian Values

Education is an integral value in both Marianist and Native Hawaiian culture. Both recognize the transformative effect of a well-rounded, value-centered education on society, particularly in seeking justice for the marginalized, the forgotten, and the oppressed, always with an eye toward God (Ke Akua). This is reflected in the ‘Ōlelo No’eau (Hawaiian proverbs) and Marianist core beliefs:

1. Educate for Formation in Faith (Mana) E ola au i ke akua (‘Ōlelo No’eau 364) May I live by God
2. Provide an Integral, Quality Education (Na’auao) Lawe i ka ma’alea a kū’ono’ono (‘Ōlelo No’eau 1957) Acquire skill and make it deep
3. Educate in Family Spirit (‘Ohana) ‘Ike aku, ‘ike mai, kōkua aku kōkua mai; pela iho la ka nohana ‘ohana (‘Ōlelo No’eau 1200) Recognize others, be recognized, help others, be helped; such is a family relationship
4. Educate for Service, Justice and Peace (Aloha) Ka lapa kū o ka no’eau (‘Ōlelo No’eau 1430) Education is the standing torch of wisdom
5. Educate for Adaptation and Change (Aina) ‘A’ohe pau ka ‘ike i ka hālau ho’okahi (‘Ōlelo No’eau 203) All knowledge is not taught in the same school.

Attendance Policy

The following attendance policy is from the 2019-2020 Academic Catalog (p. 54-55). Faculty members should also check with their divisions for division-specific guidelines.

Students are expected to regularly attend all courses for which they are registered. Students should notify their instructors when illness or other extenuating circumstances prevents them from attending class and make an arrangement to complete missed assignments. Notification may be done by emailing the instructor's Chaminade email address, calling the instructor's campus extension, or by leaving a message with the instructor's division office. It is the instructor's prerogative to modify deadlines of course requirements accordingly. Any student who stops attending a course without officially withdrawing may receive a failing grade.

Unexcused absences equivalent to more than a week of classes may lead to a grade reduction for the course. Any unexcused absence of two consecutive weeks or more may result in being withdrawn from the course by the instructor, although the instructor is not required to withdraw students in that scenario. Repeated absences put students at risk of failing grades.

Students with disabilities who have obtained accommodations from the Chaminade University of Honolulu Tutor Coordinator may be considered for an exception when the accommodation does not materially alter the attainment of the learning outcomes.

Federal regulations require continued attendance for continuing payment of financial aid. When illness or personal reasons necessitate continued absence, the student should communicate first with the instructor to review the options. Anyone who stops attending a course without official withdrawal may receive a failing grade or be withdrawn by the instructor at the instructor's discretion.

Academic Conduct Policy

From the 2019-2020 Undergraduate Academic Catalog (p. 39):

Any community must have a set of rules and standards of conduct by which it operates. At Chaminade, these standards are outlined so as to reflect both the Catholic, Marianist values of the institution and to honor and respect students as responsible adults. All alleged violations of the community standards are handled through an established student conduct process, outlined in the Student Handbook, and operated within the guidelines set to honor both students' rights and campus values.

Students should conduct themselves in a manner that reflects the ideals of the University. This includes knowing and respecting the intent of rules, regulations, and/or policies presented in the Student Handbook, and realizing that students are subject to the University's jurisdiction from the time of their admission until their enrollment has been formally terminated. Please refer to the Student Handbook for more details. A copy of the Student Handbook is available on the Chaminade website.
