Class meets: Asynchronous
Office Hours: Virtual appointment
(Thursdays 12pm-1.30pm and by appointment)

Course Description: This course introduces the principles of microeconomics that individuals and firms follow when making decisions within a market economy and how the market system allocates scarce resources. In this course, we also study the basics of supply and demand, theory of pricing under competition, monopoly, and imperfect competition. We also study how the government interfere in the market system.

Time Allocation

This is a three-credit hour course requiring 85 clock hours of student engagement, per the official CUH Credit Hour Policy. Over the 10 weeks of this course, students will spend 15 hours completing weekly quizzes (1.5 hour each week), and 55 hours studying for revising and taking two midterms and one final exam. There will be an additional 15 hours of work required beyond what is listed here (i.e., course reading), average 1.5 hours each week.

Textbook:

- Principles of Microeconomics. Dirk Mateer and Lee Coppock. W. W. Norton & Company. I am using the 4th Edition, but any version of the version from the 2nd and above are fine.
- You may also consult the following freely available textbook of Principles of Microeconomics. David Shapiro, Daniel MacDonald, Steven A. GreenLaw online here.
- Other materials will be posted on the Canvas course website and/or provided in class.

Course Learning Objectives (CLOs):

The main objective of this course is to give students a broad understanding of the choices people made in using scarce resources to meet their wants. Upon completion of the course, you will be able to:

- 1) Explain the fundamental microeconomic themes of scarcity, opportunity costs, incentives, marginal thinking, gains from specialization and trade.
- 2) Describe each component in the supply and demand model.
- 3) Describe price elasticity of demand, income elasticity of demand, and cross-price elasticity of demand.
- 4) Differentiate different types of business costs.
- 5) Differentiate between types of market structures: perfectly competitive market, monopoly, oligopoly, and monopolistic competition market.

This course satisfies the following Program Learning Outcomes (PLOs):

	CLO 1	CLO 2	CLO 3	CLO 4	CLO 5
PLO	1,7,8	1,3,8	1,4,8	1,6,8	1,2,8

This course schedule provides a general plan. Deviations may be necessary.

Milestones:

Milestones are the key checkpoints that are used to keep your learning pace and flag your progress early. Milestone 1 is due at 11.59 pm on Monday, 01/26. By this milestone, you must complete the syllabus quiz, homework 1, and homework 2. If you have not done the assignments by the milestone 1, you were supposed to drop from the class. Milestone 2 is due at 11.59 pm on Friday, 03/06. By milestone 2, you must complete syllabus quiz, home works (up to homework 7), and midterm 1. The milestone 2 is the half-way evaluation of your learning progress.

Examinations

1. There will be two midterms during the semester. The midterms will be due at 11.59 pm on:
 - a. Monday, February 09th
 - b. Monday, March 09th

There will be a final exam, to be due on Tuesday, March 24th at 11.59 pm. The midterms are not cumulative, while the final will be.

The midterms and final exam will be the two-hour exams and in the format as the weekly homework. The tests will focus on materials and are on assignments throughout the session. The first midterm will be available on Canvas between Sunday, February 08 (7.00 am) and Monday, February 09 (11.59 pm); the second midterm will be available between Sunday, March 08 (7.00 am) and Monday, March 09 (11.59 pm). The final exam will be available between Monday, March 23 (7.00 am) and Tuesday, March 24 (11.59 pm). More details will be made available as the session progresses. If you do not submit the exam for grading within 2 hours of opening it and before the deadline, you will automatically receive a zero.

2. There will be no make-ups for the exams. If you miss an exam or quiz, you will automatically receive a zero for that exam/quiz, except that you have a valid reason*, as well as you submit written documentation/proof promptly.
3. Midterms will be held during normal class hours. If a student cannot take their midterms on the exam date for valid reason, a note will be required. Please communicate with the instructor if such circumstances occur.
4. Final exam: As by university policy, participation is mandatory, and students cannot be excused for any reason. The final exam will be lightly cumulative from past midterms and materials after midterm 2.

Valid reasons include medical situations, a death in your immediate family, athlete travels, mandatory court, and military duty. In all these cases, you are required to submit written documentation ASAP. Being confused about the date or time of the class or exam, having non-refundable airplane tickets that conflict with class/exam date and time, family vacation, etc. are not valid reasons for missing an assignment or an exam.*

Assignments

1. All homework assignments will be distributed via Canvas. You have eight days to complete each assignment, which typically starts on Monday and is due on the following Monday at 11:59pm, unless announced differently. You will have two attempts for each assignment, and only the highest score will be recorded. No late submission will be accepted. If you miss an assignment, you will automatically receive a zero for that assignment. Not checking Canvas course website, internet instability, technical problem, etc. are not valid reasons for missing an assignment.
2. The homework assignments will not be cumulative, and the questions will be a mix of conceptual and analytical problems. You may use any resources you wish (book, notes, work together, emails to me, etc.) to complete the assignments at your own pace as long as it is submitted by the due date of each assignment. You will be assigned ten home works in total, but only five your highest scored assignments will be counted to your total score.

Grading and Assignments: Your grade is composed of the following four items

1. Homework Assignments: 10 points each * 10 assignments = 100 points (35%)
 2. Midterms: 50 points each * 2 exams = 100 points (30%)
 3. Final Exam: 100 points (35%)
- ⇒ Maximum score: 100

Grading Scales:

Total Points	Letter Grade
≥ 90	A
80 - 89	B
70 - 79	C
60 - 69	D
≤ 59	F

University Policies:

Academic Honesty Statement: Violations of the Honor Code are serious. They harm other students, your professor, and the integrity of the University. Alleged violations will be referred to the Office of Judicial Affairs. If found guilty of plagiarism, a student might receive a range of penalties, including failure of an assignment, failure of an assignment and withholding of the final course grade until a paper is turned in on the topic of plagiarism, failure of the course, or suspension from the University. Violations of Academic Integrity: Violations of the principle include, but are not limited to:

- Cheating: Intentionally using or attempting to use unauthorized materials, information, notes, study aids, or other devices in any academic exercise.
- Fabrication and Falsification: Intentional and unauthorized alteration or invention of any information or citation in an academic exercise. Falsification is a matter of inventing or counterfeiting information for use in any academic exercise.
- Multiple Submissions: The submission of substantial portions of the same academic work for credit (including oral reports) more than once without authorization.
- Plagiarism: Intentionally or knowingly presenting the work of another as one's own (i.e., without proper acknowledgment of the source).
- Abuse of Academic Materials: Intentionally or knowingly destroying, stealing, or making inaccessible library or other academic resource materials.

Complicity in Academic Dishonesty: Intentionally or knowingly helping or attempting to help another to commit an act of academic dishonesty.

Plagiarism includes, but is not limited to:

- Copying or borrowing liberally from someone else's work without his/her knowledge or permission; or with his/her knowledge or permission and turning it in as your own work.
- Copying of someone else's exam or paper.
- Allowing someone to turn in your work as his or her own.
- Not providing adequate references for cited work.
- Copying and pasting large quotes or passages without properly citing them.

Disability Access

Chaminade University of Honolulu offers accommodations for all actively enrolled students with disabilities in compliance with Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) of 1990, and the ADA Amendments Act (2008).

If you need individual accommodations to meet course outcomes because of a documented disability, please speak with me to discuss your needs as soon as possible so that we can ensure your full participation in class and fair assessment of your work. Students with special needs who meet criteria for the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) provisions must provide written documentation of the need for accommodations from Kōkua 'Ike: Center for Student Learning by the end of week three of the class, in order for instructors to plan accordingly. Verification of their disability will be requested through appropriate documentation and once received it will take up to approximately 2–3 weeks to review them. Appropriate paperwork will be completed by the student before notification will be sent out to their instructors. If a student would like to determine if they meet the criteria for accommodations, they should contact the Kōkua 'Ike Coordinator at (808) 739-8305 for further information (ada@chaminade.edu).
