

ENG 421 20th Century British Literature
Fall 2001 Pearl Harbor
Fridays 4:45 - 8:50 p.m.
C. A. Jardin, Instructor

COURSE SYLLABUS

- October 5- Friday - Introduction to Course and Course Requirements
Sign up for Oral Presentation
- October 12 - Friday - start drama section

George Bernard Shaw p. 31
St Joan pp. 34 -104
Viewing video
- October 19 - Friday - John M. Synge In The Shadow of the Glen
Playboy of the Western World

Oral Presentation
- October 26 - Friday - Paper #1 due on Drama

start poetry section
Thomas Hardy p. 13 / Selected poems pp. 14 - 30
William B Yeats p. 171/ Selected poems pp. 175 - 226
Wilfred Owen p. 542
D. H. Lawrence p. 318 / Selected poems pp. 432 - 460
A. E. Housman p. 522

Oral Presentation
- November 2 - Friday - Edwin Muir p. 599
W. H. Auden P. 583 / Selected poems pp. 586 - 604
Dylan Thomas p. 613
Robert Graves p. 567
Ted Hughes p. 674
Philip Larkin p. 665

Oral Presentation

ENG 421 - 20th Century British Literature
Fall 2001 Pearl Harbor
Course Syllabus - page 2

- November 9 - Friday - Paper #2 due - Poetry
Start prose section
E. M. Forster p 620
 "What I Believe" pp. 623 - 630
Rudyard Kipling p. 530
Oral Presentation
- November 16 - Friday - Aldous Huxley p. 575
George Orwell p. 632
Samuel Becket p. 652
James Joyce p. 227, Portrait of the Artist pp. 261 - 273
Oral presentation
- November 23 - Friday - Joseph Conrad p. 105 "Heart of Darkness" pp. 108-171
D. H. Lawrence p. 308 "The Prussian Officer" pp. 311-326
Oral presentation
- November 30 - Friday - Paper #3 due - Prose
Review of semester's work
- December 7 - Friday - Last Night of Class
Final Grades Distributed

Dates to Remember:

- October 26 - Paper #1 due on Drama of the Period
November 9 - Paper #2 due on the Poetry of the Period
November 30 - Paper #3 due on the Prose of the Period

ENG 421 20th Century British Literature
Fall 2001 Pearl Harbor
Fridays 4:45 - 8:50 p.m.
C. A. Jardin, Instructor

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

ENGLISH 421 is a critical and historical study of British literature of the twentieth century. The course will center on the reading and discussion of various literary genres - poetry, essays and criticism, and drama. The course will emphasize (1) the writer and his/her world, (2) developments in thought and culture, and (3) understanding and appreciation of literary works as representations of the forces within society and changes in society.

A good reader is one who both selects judiciously and reads discriminately. Literature holds many values for students: concerned with such realities as life, death, love, the problem of good and evil. Literature enriches and clarifies life by contributing to an understanding of mankind's relationship to society, to the physical environment, to one's inner self and beliefs. Most students are certain to invest a substantial portion of their lives in reading fiction. This means that one of the most important acquisitions for college students is a growing habit of active personal judgment in the selection and appraisal of what they read. They can best initiate themselves into a habit of valid and effective judgment by systematic, extensive practice in the critical reading of writings of various genre. This course completes the cycle of British literature (along with ENG321 and ENG322) and will provide this practice designed to help students become judicious readers of literary form.

The final grade will be based on four parts: (1) a 15-20 minute oral presentation on a writer of the student's choice, along with a written summary of the presentation and three essay papers - (2) one on drama, (3) one on poetry and (4) one on prose (essays and criticism). Each paper should be a minimum of five to a maximum of ten pages and properly documented in the MLA format [see www.mla.org for sample formats]. The essay should develop the student's perspective on the ideas expressed in the work and may be compared to other works by the particular authors or other writers discussed in the class. The papers will be due at the class meeting after class discussion on the various works.

Attendance is required at all class meetings, and students are expected to participate in class discussions of the various works.

TEXTBOOKS REQUIRED:

Kermode & Hollander. Modern British Literature. 1973

Synge, John M. . Playboy of the Western World. and In the Shadow of the Glen

Grades: The final grade will be based on the following percentages and criteria:

Paper #1 on drama of period – due October 26, 2001	25%
Paper #2 on poetry of the period – due November 9, 2001	25%
Paper #3 on prose of the period – due November 30, 2001	25%
Oral Presentation – on work of student’s choice	15%
Attendance, Class Participation, and Timeliness of Assignments	10%

There are three approaches/options that may be taken for the required papers:

1. You may select a writer whom we discuss in class and select another work by that writer and develop an essay discussing the themes / style / and context of that writer’s work to the time period.
2. You may develop an essay comparing / contrasting the themes / styles/ and context of the writers whom we have discussed in class
3. You may develop an essay on a writer whom we have not discussed in class as the basis of an essay discussing that writers work in the context of the time / genre. You may also compare this writer to one whom we have discussed in class.

Each paper will be 7 to 10 pages in length and properly documented in the MLA format. (see www.mla.org for sample formats) The subject matter for each paper will be of the student’s choice and will analyze writers and their writings/themes. Suggested topic and approaches will be discussed in class.

ENG421 20th Century British Literature
Fall 2001 Pearl Harbor
Fridays 4:45 - 8:50 p.m.
C. A. Jardin, Instructor

ORAL PRESENTATION REQUIREMENTS

The work selected for the oral presentation may be chosen from the text or from an outside source. Students may select either an author from the text NOT scheduled to be discussed in class, or the student may select an alternate work by an author discussed in class. If the work is from another source, the student must provide copies of the work (or at least representative selections) for each member of the class at least one class meeting prior to the scheduled presentation date. All date selections must be made by Friday, October 5, 2001 and all story choices must be made by Friday, October 12, 2001, in order to avoid any conflicts.

Each oral presentation should run approximately ten to fifteen minutes, depending on the length of the selection. The final time limit requirement will be determined by the number of students enrolled in the class.

Each report must consist of three parts:

- (1) a BRIEF biography of the author, concentrating on material dealing with the work chosen
- (2) SUMMARIZING the work for the class, with an overall analysis of the work. This section is the focus of the presentation.

Briefly discuss what you think the author is trying to communicate to the reader, pointing out lines or passages you found most effective, interesting, or revealing.

- (3) YOUR CRITICISM of the work - what do you think of the work, what you like or dislike about it. You may refer to published criticism, but the concentration should be on your reactions and viewpoint.

A written summary of the presentation within one week after the presentation. This written report is part of the requirements of the assignment. Failure to submit the written summary will result in the loss of grade standing.

Each report must be given on schedule. Only under special circumstances will changes be allowed, and any changes must be approved and coordinated with the instructor in advance. Failure to give an oral presentation will result in an F for 15% of the final grade.

The following definitions of grades are taken from the Chaminade University Handbook:

- A (93-100)- Outstanding scholarship and an unusual degree of intellectual initiative
 - B (85-94) - Superior work done in a consistent and intelligent manner
 - C (77-84) - Average grade indicating a competent grasp of the subject matter
 - D (70-76) - Inferior work of the lowest passing grade, the student having learned the bare minimum of the subject matter
 - F (below 70)- Failure to grasp even the bare minimum of the subject matter OR failure to withdraw officially from the course
 - I (Incomplete) - A grade of "I" may be given to a student who has not completed a portion of the course material for a valid reason. There is a 30-day deadline for the submission of all required work. A contract (defining the requirements and setting the deadline for submission of required work) must be signed by both the student and the instructor. An alternative grade is submitted by the instructor and becomes final if the work is not submitted on time.
 - W (Withdrawal) - an official withdrawal from the course - the student must withdraw through the Office of the Registrar
- C/NC (Credit/No Credit) - Only one course per term which fulfills the general elective requirements may be taken on a pass/fail basis. The maximum number of courses a BA/BS student may take on this basis is eight.