

SS II '02

Eng.091/MTWThF 1:00 P.M.-3:30 P.M./BS 102/Roman Druker
RDRUKERR@CS.COM

Course Description

The course will help students to develop reading skills required in an academic setting. Students will learn how to summarize, paraphrase, quote, evaluate, analyze, and understand textual sources.

Course Objectives

- To read a text critically
- To take notes and respond to the ideas
- To develop analytical skills
- To recognize and comprehend the internal structure and logic of any piece of writing

Required Texts and Materials

Reading Skills for College Students, Fifth Edition, by Hancock, Ophelia, H., Prentice Hall, 2001

Any device that would produce a type-written text; a dictionary, a notebook, and a pen.

Student Responsibilities:

Students are expected to participate in all exercises. Students should adhere to the academic honor code established by Chaminade University.

Grades

Participation 10%; Assignments 50% ; Final Project 30%; Final Exam 10%

Activity Schedule

As attendance is mandatory, all class activities will be announced daily.