Course Description & Materials

Catalog Description

The two years of practicum provide supervised clinical field experience. In addition to the required hours working at the assigned training site, students enrolled in practicum meet weekly in a practicum seminar led by a clinical faculty member. The overall practicum experience may be structured such that either the first year of practicum experience (Practicum I, Practicum II, Practicum II-E) will focus on assessment issues and the second year on psychotherapy (Practicum III, Practicum IV, Practicum IV-E).

The seminar course for students in Intervention Practicum provides group consultation and exploration of psychotherapy in practice. Students are encouraged to discuss their development as a practitioner of clinical psychology and their deepening understanding of the therapeutic process including insights related to the application of their theoretical orientation of choice. Peers learn to provide critical, ethical, diversity sensitive, and supportive feedback on matters related to supervised clinical practice.

Learning Outcomes

Program Learning Outcomes (PLOs)

The Hawai'i School of Professional Psychology at Chaminade University of Honolulu's clinical psychology doctoral program's aim is to educate and train students employing a practitioner-scholar model so that they will be able to function effectively as clinical psychologists. To ensure that students are adequately prepared, the curriculum is designed to provide for the meaningful integration of psychological science, theory, and clinical practice. The clinical psychology program at the Hawai'i School of Professional Psychology is designed to emphasize the development of knowledge, skills, and attitudes essential in the training of health service psychologists who are committed to the ethical provision of quality, evidence-based services to diverse populations and who are able to apply multiple theoretical perspectives to clinical issues.

The Hawai'i School of Professional Psychology at Chaminade University of Honolulu's clinical psychology doctoral program subscribes to the American Psychological Association (APA) Standards of Accreditation. 1. Students will apply and refine their therapeutic skills (i.e., initiating the therapeutic process, establishing the therapeutic alliance, interviewing and history gathering). (Competency 8)
2. Students will apply and articulate their clinical integration skills (i.e., formulating and developing a case conceptualization and treatment plans, integration of assessment data). (Competency 8)
3. Students will link their theoretical orientation for case conceptualization and intervention. (Competency 8)

7. Students will utilize and provide constructive peer feedback to further develop their theoretical orientation and therapeutic skills. (Competency 2 & 3)

Marianist Values

An education in the Marianist Tradition is marked by five principles. Reflect on how this course relates to one or more:

1. Education for formation in faith.
2. Provide an integral, quality education.
3. Educate in family spirit.
4. Educate for service, justice and peace, and integrity of creation.
5. Educate for adaptation and change.

Native Hawaiian Values

Education is central to both Marianist and Native Hawaiian culture — both seek transformative, value-centered learning that serves the marginalized. This is reflected in the ‘Ōlelo No’eau (Hawaiian proverbs) below:

1. Educate for Formation in Faith (Mana): E ola au i ke akua (‘Ōlelo No’eau 364) — May I live by God.
2. Provide an Integral, Quality Education (Na’auao): Lawe i ka ma’alea a kū’ono’ono (‘Ōlelo No’eau 1957) — Acquire skill and make it deep.
3. Educate in Family Spirit (‘Ohana): ‘Ike aku, ‘ike mai, kōkua aku kōkua mai (‘Ōlelo No’eau 1200) — Recognize others, be recognized, help others, be helped.
4. Educate for Service, Justice and Peace (Aloha): Ka lama kū o ka no’eau (‘Ōlelo No’eau 1430) — Education is the standing torch of wisdom.
5. Educate for Adaptation and Change (Aina): ‘A’ohe pau ka ‘ike i ka hālau ho’okahi (‘Ōlelo No’eau 203) — All knowledge is not taught in the same school.

Alignment of Course Learning Outcomes

CLO alignment is displayed in the CLO section above.

Attendance & In-Class Participation

Attendance Policy

Students are expected to regularly attend all courses for which they are registered. Student should notify their instructors when illness or other extenuating circumstances prevent them from attending class, and they should make arrangements to obtain missed information and complete missed assignments. It is the instructor’s prerogative to modify deadlines of course requirements accordingly. Any student who stops attending a course without officially withdrawing may receive a failing grade. Students may be automatically withdrawn from the class or receive a failing grade if there are three or more absences in a 16-week term. With the condensed nature of the 8-week terms, missing class one day (e.g., 6-hours of class) would be equivalent to two absences in a 16-week term.

Students with disabilities who have obtained accommodations from the Chaminade University of Honolulu ADA Coordinator may be considered for an exception when the accommodation does not materially alter the attainment of the learning outcomes. Federal regulations require continued attendance for continuing payment of financial aid. When illness or personal reasons necessitate continued absence, the student should communicate first with the instructor to review options. Anyone who stops attending a course without an official withdrawal may receive a failing grade or be withdrawn by the instructor at the instructor’s discretion.

In-Class Participation Expectations

Active, respectful engagement is essential. Students are expected to come prepared and contribute meaningfully to discussions, activities, and collaborative work.

Course Requirements and Activities

Attendance and Participation (10pts)

It is expected that the student be respectful and sensitive towards their peers and themselves. Given the course’s focus on didactic, discussion, participation, and especially experiential learning, the student is expected to attend all classes and be on time. It is also expected that the student will inform me ahead of time if they will be late or absent for a class. If the student is tardy or misses a class, they are responsible for finding out what material was covered in addition to making up missed work. I encourage you to consult with me to review material missed and for make-up work. Additionally, a student who is chronically tardy may need to repeat the Seminar. A student who misses 3 or more classes may be required to repeat the Seminar. The instructor's assumptions include the understanding that learning is a shared responsibility; there is a positive correlation between one's active participation and one's learning; and that there are many valid truths and perspectives that are useful in developing self-awareness and critical thinking. The development of critical thinking skills can be facilitated by qualities such as openness, fair-mindedness, curiosity, valuing clarity, respecting different points of view, the willingness to change positions, and the ability to find equanimity.

Theoretically Oriented Intervention Review Paper (20pts)	Students will write a paper that examines the evidence base of interventions utilized within their theoretical orientation. This paper should be no longer than 1000 words, double spaced, and set in APA format. The review shall include three peer reviewed journal articles that provide meaningful information regarding the efficacy, utility, and limitations of the intervention. This review will be shared with the class and discussed as it pertains to the student's evolving clinical competencies.
Case Vignette Presentation (20pts)	Create a 30 to 45-minute case vignette presentation of a client. A Guideline will be handed out in class for your preparation. Each student will submit a vignette summary to the instructor a week before the vignette presentation.
Peer Consultation (15pts)	Students will offer respectful, thoughtful, and critical feedback on the cases that are presented as a means of providing peer consultation. In addition, the peer consultants are encouraged to discuss and provide observations of the therapeutic process in order to empower and support their peers as evolving clinicians.
Mock Interview (20pts)	As part of your professional preparation, you will complete a video-recorded virtual mock interview with the instructor. This required assignment is designed to help you develop confidence, clarity, and professionalism in interview settings that are encountered for diagnostic, intervention, and pre-doctoral internship placements. The student will be asked to articulate their critical thinking and applied knowledge. The focus will be on effective communication of ideas, demonstration of interview preparedness, and presentation as professional candidate.
Autobiographical Essay (15pts)	This essay should be no longer than 500 words, double spaced, and set in APA format. 1) Provide an autobiographical statement that includes a reflection of your graduate training that is authentic and gives the reader a sense of who you are personally and professionally. This paper provides you with an opportunity for self-examination, integration of your ideas, and the opportunity to work on internship application essays and receive feedback. Course Policies

Late Work	Late work is not accepted unless approved by the instructor. Contact your instructor regarding arrangements and the impact on your final grade.
Make-Up Work	There is no make-up work allowed for this course.
Extra Credit	There is no extra credit for this course.

Incomplete Grade	The issuance of an “I” is at the discretion of the instructor. Grade deductions for late work may be imposed. The incomplete grade may be assigned to a student who has successfully completed a majority of the work of the course and who has an unavoidable and compelling reason why the remainder of the work cannot be completed on schedule. A contract with the instructor must be drawn up, with the instructor indicating the due date of the remaining assignments (up to 30 days).
Syllabus Changes	The instructor reserves the right to modify this syllabus. Changes will be announced in class and posted to Canvas.
Cell phones, tablets, and laptops	Out of consideration for your classmates, please set your cell phone to silent mode during class. Students are required to bring laptops or tablets to class as the instructor will assign online activities and readings that will require the use of a laptop or tablet. Laptops and tablets should not be misused, such as checking distracting websites. Use your best judgment and respect your classmates and instructor.
Professionalism with class topics and discussions	It is anticipated that in the course of students’ graduate education in clinical psychology, they will have emotional reactions to class topics and discussions. Recognizing, understanding, and managing one’s internal states is an integral part of one’s professional responsibility. In the event that affective reactions become overwhelming, students are expected to manage their reactivity as they would as a practicing professional, subsequently discussing it with professors/supervisors and seeking informal and/or formal support. Similarly, it is the student’s responsibility to notify the professor of potential issues, so they can address them (e.g., using the correct pronouns, pronouncing names/words correctly, awareness of triggering content). Self-disclosure is considered voluntary and at the discretion of the student. Additionally, it is expected that peers be mindful and respectful of disclosures of others, keeping shared information confidential.
Use of course information, content, and materials	Unless expressed in writing via a university accommodation, all course information, content, and materials in any medium (including but not limited to notes, slides, recordings, electronic files, and verbal discussions and presentations) are prohibited from being intentionally or unintentionally shared (or allowed to be accessed), distributed, published, uploaded, or reproduced in any form, as they are reserved for the private use by the student registered for the course. Any audio and/or visual recordings (including pictures) are prohibited unless prior written permission from the instructor is granted, and permission is limited to individual and temporary use (i.e., recordings are not to be shared/reproduced, recordings must be deleted at the end of the term).
APA writing style	Unless otherwise instructed, all course submissions should follow the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association, 7th Edition format. The faculty at the Hawai’i School of Professional Psychology at Chaminade University of Honolulu is dedicated to providing a learning environment that supports scholarly and ethical writing, free from academic dishonesty and plagiarism. This includes the proper and appropriate referencing of all sources. Your course assignments may be submitted to an online authenticity resource (e.g., Turnitin), which helps students and instructors detect potential cases of academic dishonesty.
Use of AI in this course	The program needs to evaluate a student’s competency in all academic and practice areas (including writing skills and critical thinking). Therefore, using artificial intelligence (AI) and automated writing tools is not permitted for program submissions and will be considered academic dishonesty.

Important Information

Academic Honesty

Academic honesty is an essential aspect of all learning, scholarship, and research. It is one of the values regarded most highly by academic communities throughout the world. Violations of the principle of academic honesty are extremely serious and will not be tolerated.

Students are responsible for promoting academic honesty at Chaminade by not participating in any act of dishonesty and by reporting any incidence of academic dishonesty to an instructor or to a University official. Academic dishonesty may include theft of records or examinations, alteration of grades, plagiarism, and unauthorized and/or undisclosed AI usage, in addition to more obvious dishonesty. See catalog section Student Use of Artificial Intelligence in Academic Work for further information.

Questions of academic dishonesty in a particular class are first reviewed by the instructor, who must make a report with recommendations to the Director of the Academic College. Punishment for academic dishonesty will be determined by the instructor, Director, and the Dean of Academic College and may include an "F" grade for the work in question, an "F" grade for the course, academic notice, or dismissal from the University.

AI (Artificial Intelligence) Statement

Chaminade University recognizes the increasing role of artificial intelligence (AI) technologies in academic and professional environments. AI encompasses, but is not limited to, generative AI platforms, automated writing or content generation software, coding assistants, and similar tools. Students must ensure all submitted work genuinely reflects their knowledge and effort. Using AI to produce or significantly complete graded assignments, exams or other academic tasks – defined as use that substitutes for or substantially replaces a student's own analysis, reasoning or written expression – without explicit instructor approval is considered academic misconduct and will be dealt with according to the University's Academic Honesty Policy.

If an instructor has reasonable grounds to question whether submitted work genuinely reflects a student's own knowledge, authorship, or mastery of course material — or whether it meets the course's expectations for AI use — the instructor may require the student to provide additional or alternative evidence of authorship and content mastery. Such evidence may include drafts, notes, revision history, source materials, process explanations, oral discussion, in class work, or completion of an alternative assessment. A student's refusal or inability to provide such evidence may be considered, along with other available information, in evaluating whether the work meets course requirements and stated learning outcomes. Instructors will not rely solely on AI detection software or other automated tools in making grading or academic integrity determinations. Such determinations will be based on the totality of the available information and handled in accordance with applicable University policies and procedures. See the catalog section Student Use of Artificial Intelligence in Academic Work for further information.
