Course Description:

In this introductory course in French, you will learn the basics in reading, writing, speaking, and listening. The history of the United States as well as the English language have been greatly influenced by French and France. You will learn about French-speaking peoples and gain an awareness of French Culture through film, music, and video. You will also begin to communicate authentically in this beautiful language.

Course Objectives: If you succeed in this course, you will be able to:

1. use your newly acquired language skills in authentic ways with others and you will understand, respond to, and ask basic questions
2. write short compositions with the vocabulary and grammatical structure learned in the class
3. read short passages and answer oral or written questions
4. create a strong foundation for further studies in the French language
5. demonstrate knowledge of French Culture through oral or written reports
6. become familiar with French language-learning websites
7. write a poem in French

Course Format: Lecture and practice with regular homework assignments in the Workbook, both written and oral. The class will be conducted in French.
