SYLLABUS

Course: History 151 -- World Civilizations I (3 credit hours)
Time: Mon., 17:30-21:40
Instructor: K. Matsumoto
Telephone: (808) 845-9261

Course Description: History 151 & 152 examine the development of World Civilizations and their historical interactions in order to provide a framework for understanding the modern world. History 152 focuses on World Civilizations since A.D. 1500.

Texts: A History of World Societies, 4th ed., vol. 2, by McKay, Hill and Buckler

Course Requirements: Students are responsible for all material covered in class and are encouraged to attend class regularly and to take notes. ~~Students are urged to read the material in the text before coming to class, and are urged to review the material again after class in order to master the terms and concepts covered during the lectures. Vocabulary terms and essay questions will be provided before the tests and students are urged to prepare written responses or outlines to prepare for tests.~~

Course Evaluation: Student performance will be evaluated as follows:

- | | | |
|----|---|-----|
| 1. | Two vocabulary tests (short essay) | 20% |
| 2. | Two essay examinations: one midterm and one final | 30% |
| 3. | Two short papers | 30% |
| 4. | Oral Presentation | 10% |
| 5. | Attendance and class participation | 10% |

Note: Cheating and plagiarism are grounds for disciplinary action.

Oral Presentation: Each student will make a oral presentation of one of the papers prepared for this class.

Guidelines for Papers:

- Each student will submit two short papers.
- One paper will be presented in class.
- Each paper must be at least 5 pages in length.
- This does not include cover pages, illustrations or bibliographies.
- Each paper must be typed, double-spaced.
- Margins--top, bottom, left and right--may not exceed one-inch.
- Font size may not exceed 12 pitch; pages must be numbered.
- You must consult and make reference to at least 3 sources. Our text may be one of these sources. Please do not use general encyclopedias.
- Your research should be balanced. When possible, you should consult different types of materials (primary sources, secondary sources in the form of monographs, periodicals, etc.).
- Do not write your paper exclusively from one source.

- Your paper should contain some critical analysis and should not be primarily a recitation of historical facts.
- Proof read your paper for grammatical and typographical errors and make the necessary corrections before submission.
- Papers will not be returned.
- Do not turn in a paper you prepared for another class or a paper prepared by someone else.
- Please see me if you would like me to review a draft of your paper.
