

FE '00
Ems

Topic: No Topic (1 of 2), Read 67 times new

Conf: Syllabus

From: Kris Matsumoto 2ravens@excite.com

Date: Friday, October 06, 2000 10:30 AM

Instructor: Kris Matsumoto

Email address: 2ravens@excite.com, onehundredcrows@juno.com

Course Description: History 151 & 152 examine the development of World Civilizations and their historical interactions in order to provide a framework for understanding the modern world. History 151 focuses on World Civilizations prior to AD 1500.

Texts: World Civilizations, 2nd ed., vol. 1, by Philip J. Adler

Student Responsibilities:

Students are responsible for all deadlines and course requirements.

Students are urged to read and review the material in the text in order to master the terms and concepts that will appear on the tests and examinations.

Grades are not arbitrarily assigned; rather, students will receive the grades they earn.

Scores for work that is not submitted when due will be reduced by one letter grade, unless documentation from a supervisor or health care professional is provided.

This is an accelerated course. Make note of the deadlines and plan ahead; do not leave things to the last minute.

Course Evaluation: Student performance will be evaluated as follows:

Two Vocabulary Tests (Short Essay) (Weeks 4 and 9)(20%)

Midterm Examination (Essay) (Week 5)(20%)

Final Examination (Essay) (Week 10)(20%)

Research Paper (Week 9)(20%)

Meaningful participation in webboard discussions (20%)

Note: Cheating and plagiarism are grounds for disciplinary action.