

<http://acad.chaminade.edu:8080/~hi305/login>

~~HI~~ HI WE '01
30590 Pms

Topic: Assignments (1 of 1), Read 4 times
Conf: Syllabus
From: John Bickel jobickel@k12.hi.us
Date: Wednesday, December 13, 2000 11:14 AM

ASSIGNMENTS:

You will discuss the questions in Discussion 1 from the beginning of class until January 17 at which point I post the paper topic. You then have until January 23 to get the paper e-mailed to me. You then begin Discussion 2 until January 31 when I grade that discussion and post the paper topic #2 which will be due to me by February 6. Discussion 3 lasts until February 14. Paper 3 is then posted and is due February 20. Discussion 4 lasts until February 28. Paper 4 is then posted and is due March 6. Discussion 5 lasts until March 14. Paper 5 is then posted and is due on March 20.

The pattern is to give you a little more than a week to discuss and a little less than a week to write the paper. The discussions end on Wednesdays and the papers are due on Tuesdays.

The final exam will be given at

Topic: Grading: (1 of 1), Read 3 times
Conf: Syllabus
From: John Bickel jobickel@k12.hi.us
Date: Wednesday, December 13, 2000 10:55 AM

There are five Discussions you must participate in. Each discussion is worth 5% for a total of 25% for Discussions.

There are five papers to be e-mailed to me at jobickel@k12.hi.us each also worth 5% for a total of 25% for Papers.

There is one half multiple choice half essay exam worth 50%.

TEXT: Miller, Douglas, On Our Own: Americans in the Sixties. Lexington, Mass. D.C. Heath and Co., 1996

Topic: Description (1 of 1), Read 5 times
Conf: Syllabus
From: John Bickel jobickel@k12.hi.us
Date: Wednesday, December 13, 2000 10:49 AM

The course looks in depth at the 1960s and early 1970s. We begin with the foundations of the Kennedy administration and move through the politics, foreign policy, culture, civil rights movement, the War on Poverty, the Vietnam War, and end with a look at the Nixon presidency and its demise in Watergate.

Topic: Instructor (1 of 1), Read 5 times
Conf: Syllabus
From: John Bickel jobickel@k12.hi.us
Date: Wednesday, December 13, 2000 10:41 AM

INSTRUCTOR: Hi! My name is John Bickel and I have taught for Chaminade for about nine years. I have taught almost every history and political science course offered. I also teach high school at Roosevelt High in Makiki. My phone number at home is 528-2121. This is the first time I have taught an on-line course.