Text: The American Age: United States Foreign Policy at Home and Abroad, 2nd ed.
by Walter LaFeber

Student Responsibilities:

Students are responsible for all deadlines and course requirements.

Students are urged to read and review the material in the text in order to master the terms and concepts that will appear on the tests and examinations.

Scores for work that is not submitted when due will be reduced by one letter grade, unless documentation from a supervisor or health care professional is provided.

This is an accelerated (not abbreviated) course. Make note of the deadlines and plan ahead; do not leave things to the last minute.

Course Evaluation: Student performance will be evaluated as follows:

Two Vocabulary Tests (Short Essay) (Weeks 4 and 9)(20%)

Midterm Examination (Comprehensive Essay) (Week 5) (20%)

Final Examination (Comprehensive Essay) (Week 10)(20%)

Research Paper (Week 10)(20%)

Meaningful and timely participation in webboard discussions (20%)

Note: Cheating and plagiarism are grounds for disciplinary action.
