Friday, January 23 (All State Honor Choir)

Combined Music Performance (with private vocal students)
1-2 weeks before finals - date TBA by the end of January

Materials needed: one black pocket portfolio for music

This is an introductory choral class which will explore different styles of choral music including, chamber, sacred (including gospel and spiritual), Broadway and contemporary music. Attention will be given to basic music skills, proper vocal technique and choral blend.

Students registered for more than one credit must meet with the instructor before February 1 to determine additional requirements for this class.

It is strongly recommended that students attend one or more choral presentations or performances in the Honolulu community during the semester.

To receive an A, regular attendance in class is required and attendance at the performance is mandatory. Students who must miss class for unavoidable reasons must contact the instructor.

Instructor: Beth P. Uale
