Course Description

Spanish 102 is the second part of the introductory course to the Spanish language and the culture of its speakers. The purpose of this challenging course is to expand upon knowledge gained in Spanish 101. This course will continue to facilitate the practical application of the language in everyday oral and written communication at the beginning novice level.

Upon successful completion of Spanish 102, students will be able to speak and pronounce the language well enough to initiate and sustain some simple conversations with native speakers, accustomed to dealing with foreigners, on familiar topics of a personal or survival nature.

Course Objectives

Using learned material, students will be able to:

- ✓ Engage in simple, social exchanges, concerning personal background, common interests, newsworthy events, dealing with familiar material;
- ✓ Express personal preferences in food, entertainment, travel, study, etc.;
- ✓ Describe familiar people, places, things, recreation;
- ✓ Make an oral presentation of a personal experience or story;
- ✓ Understand and interpret the significance of stories or readings presented in class;
- ✓ Restate information concerning these readings;
- ✓ Express an opinion or a preference concerning these readings;
- ✓ Read authentic everyday materials: menus, signs, maps, postcards;
- ✓ Write simple narratives without resorting to word-for-word translation, using vocabulary learned through the lessons;
- ✓ Read and write simple poems, songs;
- ✓ Improve on self-correction skills;
- ✓ Guess the meaning of new vocabulary through context;
- ✓ Recognize the distinctive aspects of the target culture as they are apparent in visuals, narratives;
- ✓ Recognize abstract ideas articulated through the language (e.g., sense of logic, clarity, orderliness);
- ✓ Make comparisons between their own language and the target language;
- ✓ See grammatical and structural patterns;
- ✓ Recognize more and more cognates.

All students are subject to the University's policies as laid forth in the current General Catalog. Special attention should be given to the topics of Academic Honesty, Plagiarism, and Attendance.

Preparation / Participation

In order to afford students the opportunity for maximum exposure to the target language, the majority of each class session will be conducted in Spanish.

Students should NOT be afraid of making mistakes, as mistakes are an inherent part of language acquisition! Participation points are not based on how grammatically correct you are, but rather on if students make a sincere effort to learn and practice the language. Participation is assessed on a weekly basis as shown below.

As a general rule, university courses require 1 - 2 hours of study per hour of class instruction. Therefore, students are expected to be fully prepared and on time every day!

In the event of absence, please contact your instructor via phone or e-mail in advance or as soon as possible.

Distinguished (9-10)	Very Good (7-8)	Satisfactory (5-6)	Unsatisfactory (<5)
Always well-prepared for class. Evident that individual has completed all reading assignments prior to class.	Participation is as good as one receiving a distinguished rating, but one or two elements are not quite of the distinguished level.	Participation is generally similar to one receiving an unsatisfactory rating, but there are one or two elements which are relatively well-done.	Does not attend class on a consistent basis.
Exhibits positive, supportive attitude toward course and class members.			Never prepared for class. Evident that individual has not completed reading assignments prior to class.
Consistently contributes to class discussion.			Exhibits negative attitudes toward course and class members.
Consistently contributes to in-class activities.			Does not contribute to class discussions or in-class activities.

(NOTE: Students cannot receive participation points during an absence. The point value assigned to the student's participation grade on said day will be a "0," barring an excused absence.)

Attendance

Regular attendance is expected at all classes and is, therefore, essential toward the successful completion of this course. If the student is / will be unable to attend class on a given day, it is his / her responsibility to contact the instructor via phone or e-mail in advance, or as soon as possible.

Students missing class, for any reason, will not be awarded with grades on the same basis as students attending class regularly. (Refer to the "Preparation / Participation" section of the syllabus).

Homework

Homework assignments will be checked at the beginning of every class session. Barring absence, no late homework assignments will be accepted!

A point value of 0 - 5 will be assigned per homework, based on a percentage of quality, completed work.

Quizzes / Chapter Tests / Exams

The quizzes, chapter tests, and Final Exam will to be administered on the day indicated on the syllabus or stipulated by the instructor.

In case of an emergency, please contact your instructor via phone or e-mail in advance, or as soon as possible. Make-ups will only be allowed for verified medical or work-related absences. Provide the instructor with original, written paperwork documenting the medical emergency or work obligation you had within 24 hours of said absence.

For medical emergencies, supply an original statement from your doctor, including his / her name, address, phone number and signature. It needs to state that you were unable to attend class on the day and time in question, not simply that you were under his / her care.

If you had to work:

(military), supply an original statement from your commander, including his / her name, address, phone number and signature. It must be on official unit letterhead! It needs to state that you had duty on the day and time in question.

(civilian), provide an original statement from your boss, including his / her name, title, company name, address, phone number and signature. It needs to state that you had to work on the day and time in question.
