

ED 613 Children's Literature – Required and Suggested Titles

In this course students will read 80 different books from the various genres listed in our textbook. Although the textbook is geared towards Children's Literature for elementary school-aged children, this course covers Children's Literature from Preschool through Secondary School. Twenty of the 80 books students must read are to be for older readers.

Please select 4 books by different authors from the list below as part of the 20 books for older readers. Students may choose to select the 20 books for older readers from the list below and/or they may select other books for older readers as well. However, a minimum of selecting 4 books from the list below is a requirement for this course.
