

AEP 100 - Intensive English

Spring 1999

Monday, Wednesday, Friday - 10:00 10:50

Tuesday, Thursday - 11:00 - 11:50

Instructor: Mrs. Eileen Natori

Ms Sharon Inatsuka

Office: Eiben Hall, Room 124

Phone: 735-4745

Course Goal & Objectives

AEP 100 will provide students with varied activities to increase the students' abilities to understand English and to express themselves in English.

Students will learn strategies for pronunciation and spelling using a phonetic base.

Students will be provided many opportunities to expand their vocabulary.

Students will learn the patterns and rules of English grammar in context; and they will apply these patterns and rules in their writing activities.

This course will provide students with instruction in reading comprehension skills.

Required texts and workbooks

Course Requirements

Students are expected to attend all class meetings, to complete all assignments, and to complete all tests/quizzes given. If a test/quiz is missed, student should make arrangements for a make-up test/quiz to be taken within a week of the missed test date. Directed study sessions and off campus activities are required for all AEP students. Final grade will be based on the scores earned on all the tests/quizzes, participation in classroom activities and directed study sessions, and homework assignments.